Party Chairmen For County To Be Named Soon

Both Democrats And Republicans To Have Contests

Democrats of the county wil choose their chairman Saturday afternoon June 17 in the Lawrence county court house and the indications point to an old fashioned political contest.

Chairman John B. Shaw is a candidate for re-election and is backed by the organization members of the county committee. Opposing him is Theodore Gunnett, local plastering contractor who has the endorsement of the CIO-PAC faction of the party headed by State Senator Samuel G. Neff and District Attorney Sherman K. Levine.

The meeting starts at two o'clock Saturday afternoon with both sides claiming victory today.

Republicans Monday

A fight in the Republican ranks is also indicated at their meeting Monday night at eight o'clock in the court house.

Captain Roger W. Rowland has announced he would not be a candidate for the chairmanship again and two men are contesting for his place. Sheriff Frank L. Coen who headed the Duff-Fine ticket in this county in May is a candidate, as is Robert Lamoree, local business man.

In the past two weeks there has been a vigorous campaign by friends of each man in an attempt to line up enough votes to win. Here again both sides claim victory and the Monday night meeting promises to be the first real committee fight in the Republican ranks for many years.

No starting date has been named for the resurfacing of Sampson street from the city line to Grant street. Alfred A. Martin, highway superintendent, reports that as the state awards the contract for materials on the job, local maintenance forces will resurface the street. The improvement will be a welcomed one when completed.

* * *

But patrons about the city still have to guess in many instances where the bus stop is on various streets where the buses operate. Most of the bus stop signs which are painted on the poles are either so weak that they can't be read or have vanished completely. In other instances, there is no indication of a bus stop in any form. Why not a neat band of yellow painted around the poles with the word's "bus stop" painted in black?

* * *

Hitchhiking still proves to be a popular pastime for the younger generation in their effort to see the country. Various exits of the city are dotted with the would be riders at most any hour of the day. Some of the older generation are found sprinkled among the thumbers.

* * *

Funds going into the construction or renovation of local churches this present year will add up considerably if all totaled together, it is learned by Pa Newc. One church has already been constructed in the county, one is to be started shortly, while others are undergoing considerable renovations to add to their interior and exterior beauty.

* * *

Several new sapplings have been planted on the lawn of the Court House to replace the older trees which were cut down in recent weeks. The trees in future years should provide ample shade and beauty for the area surrounding the Court House.

Another camping season is in the planning stage for the Free Methodists of the district in the Vine street section of the city. Work is progressing on the camp grounds, readying the site for the camp sessions in August. A large tabernacle-type tent is to be used.

West Germany Votes To Enter Europe Council

The vote was 220 to 152. Nine members abstained.

Socialist, Communist, Center party members and a few extreme Rightists voted against joining the Council.

During short debate a spokesman for the Christian Democratic Union said that it is the government's understanding that the West German Republic when it sits in council sessions at Strasbourg will be representing the whole of Germany within boundaries set as of December 31, 1937.

He did not mention, however, that the Saar had been invited separately to sit in with the council.

Parliament also confirmed the 30-day suspension of Communist Deputy Max Reimann who was ousted this week from the chamber for starting a disturbance which resulted in fist fights.

Social Security Expansion Bill Is Expected To Pass

By FRANK B. ALLEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Passage of the social security expansion bill is virtually assured today and the senate is set for a future study of whether pensions can be made universal on a pay-as-you-go basis.

With Republican senators almost unanimously in support of the administration-backed measure, the only issues involved in the votes set for next Tuseday are comparative minor questions.

But the senate is looking beyond the pending bill and is ready to set up a committee to study whether it is possible to:

1. Extend the program to groups not presently covered—which include some, such as migrant workers, who are the most likely to become public charges in their old age.

2. Get the whole program on a pay-as-you-go basis which will not be too great a burden on the economy.

Republicans in a conference were unanimously for a resolution to set up a study committee to try to give the answers to those questions to the 82nd congress next year.

School Games Patrons Are To Be Insured

New Castle's school board may have set a precedent for the school districts of Pennsylvania Wednesday night when it authorized the insuring of patrons of athletic contests in the school system.

Sometime ago, Board Solicitor Robert L. Wallace said that in his opinion the court decisions were showing a trend towards a point where a school district would be held liable for injuries caused by negligence of the district at athletic contests where admissions were charged. He suggested the board insure itself against damage suits which might arise out of any such injuries.

Wednesday night the board authorized an insurance contract with the James A. Rugh company to insure football games in Taggart Stadium and basketball games in the Washington junior high school.

The maximum fee for the football insurance will be $191.76 and for the basketball games $19.56. This is based upon a football attendance of 80,000 and of basketball, 10,000.

This insurance will cover only cases of injury caused by any neglect of the district or negligence. It will not cover damages for example where a spectator is pushed by another spectator and is injured, or where youngsters get hurt running up and down the seats as they often do after games.

Urge Aliens On U.S. Diplomatic Jobs Be Fired

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(INS)—A recommendation that aliens be fired from U.S. diplomatic jobs abroad today received powerful Senate support.

Sen. McCarran (D) Nev., chairman of the State Department Appropriations subcommittee, not only approved the recommendation, made by the Senate Loyalty Investigating committee, but went farther. He said the prohibition on alien employes should apply to all departments handling foreign affairs.

The senator asserted that the State department has given "no sign" of trying to reduce the number of aliens on its overseas payroll.

McCarran approved recommendations of a Senate Loyalty Investigating subcommittee, which urged that alien employes be replaced by Americans and diplomatic posts be housed in American-owned buildings—both for security reasons.

Two Crashes In Persian Gulf In Two Days

Huge French Plane Duplicates Disaster Occurring Tuesday

(BULLETIN)

PARIS, June 15.—(INS)—Another Air France Skymaster—the second within two days—crashed into the Persian gulf today with a reported loss of 22 lives. Rumors of possible sabotage by French Indo-Chinese Communists spread in Paris.

The huge four-engined plane, which carried 51 persons, went down at almost the same spot off Bahrein island where a sister ship was ditched Tuesday with a loss of 46 lives.

The two successive crashes caused a sensation in Paris and echoed in the National Assembly.

Deputy Henri Bouret asked the right to question the government regarding circumstances of the accidents and demanded to know what measures are planned to increase security.

Both planes were bound from Saigon, Indo-China, to Paris.

Two Runs End In Tragedy

The ship which met disaster today was the first to make the flight from Saigon since the initial crash. Thus two successive runs on the long haul from the Orient to France ended in tragedy.

Earlier dispatches reaching Paris said that 13 persons out of a total of 43 passengers and eight crew members were rescued. This left 16 unaccounted for.

Air France announced that a commission of inquiry flown out to Bahrein from Paris after the first crash decided to prohibit night landings and take-offs from the Bahrein field, which has been in use only three months.

Previously Air France utilized another airport at Bassorah, at the head of the Persian gulf.

Search For Survivors

Scene of the two crashes is about 600 miles southeast of Baghdad. United States Air Force and British Air Force helicopters and planes joined sea rescue units in a widespread search for survivors.

As in the case of the first disaster, visibility was bad and monsoon winds whipped up heavy seas.

Neither Air France nor French government officials would comment on the sabotage rumors.

Last Thursday the Olsen Farms Dairy, which is not a member of the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers Association, granted the union's wage demands.

SOCIAL SECURITY EXPANSION BILL IS EXPECTED TO PASS

universal old-age pensions on a pay-as-you-go basis got impetus when senate GOP Policy Chairman Taft (R) Ohio, took the floor and said that the federal government should switch to year-to-year support of the program and assume responsibility for pensions for all.

Senators expect that when such a program is worked out, it probably will involve the scrapping of the present insurance system which is supported by payroll contributions by both employee and employer.

Sen. Millikin (R) Col., said that general revenue or a sales tax might be means of financing the pay-as-you-go plan.

Sen. Cain (R) Wash., who is opposing passage of the pending bill, declared that universal coverage with pensions comparable to those in the bill might eventually take "20 to 25 per cent" of the nation's earning capacity.

Rail Workers Board Makes Report Today

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(INS)—A presidential emergency board recommended today that the work week of 180,000 rail workers be shortened from 48 to 40 hours a week with an 18-cent hourly pay increase.

The board's report made public by the White House affects railroad yard service employes represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors.

The suggested changes were estimated by the panel and Class I railroads as adding about $40,000,000 a year to the carrier's wage bill.

Either side can reject the board's findings, but under the Railway Labor Act no strike can be called during a 30-day cooling-off period. Thus, there could be no stoppage until July 15.

violence for months, with civil war raging between the forces of French-supported Bao Dai and Communist rebels headed by Ho Chi Minh.

The crashed plane, piloted by Robert Plamond, a veteran airman with 10,550 flying hours on his log, was to have refueled at Bahrein and then proceed immediately to Orly field, Paris, where it was due late today.

Almost At Landing

An Air France spokesman estimated that the craft hit the water at 1:53 a. m., just a few moments before it was scheduled to land.

Official quarters remained silent on the sabotage possibilities. The newspaper Paris Presse hinted at this cause, however, and the semi-official publication Le Monde said:

"It is natural that in the face of such a tragic coincidence the word sabotage should spring to mind."

Le Monde recalled that a high French official named Henri Maux was killed in the first accident. He had been scheduled to organize a conference on the Indo-Chinese situation at Pau in southern France.

Verdict Returned In Sobieraj Case

Chester A. Sobieraj was found not guilty of involuntary manslaughter and not guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He was found guilty of failure to disclose identity and failure to render assistance. On both the not guilty counts he was assessed the costs.

The case arose out of the death of Joseph McCormick on Highway 422 in March when the car Sobieraj was driving struck McCormick. Following the accident Sobieraj fled the scene and went to a friend's home eight miles away. Later he was brought in to New Castle and surrendered to the authorities.

Legion Of Honor To Meet Tonight

Members of the Legion of Honor of the Valley of New Castle Consistory will have their second June meeting in their room in The Cathedral, this evening at 8 o'clock.

In addition to regular business routine there will be several special reports, and a program of recreation will be enjoyed following the close of the meeting, Commander Ralph R. Carlson announces.

The railroad mail car was invented about 1862 by William A. Davis, St. Joseph, Mo., postmaster.

Replogle May Resign Post

High School Music Director May Quit

There seems every likelihood that the New Castle public schools will be in the market for a director of instrumental music within a short time.

Joe F. Replogle, who has had charge of instrumental music in the senior high school for 18 years has moved to Florida because of the health of his daughter.

He has not yet resigned but indicates that he probably will do so. He has agreed to return to New Castle to have the band uniforms cleaned and repaired, band and orchestra instruments repaired and music sorted.

If he returned to the city for a short period of service this summer he believes this would put him in shape to take advantage of the new retirement act.

No action was taken by the board Wednesday night on the idea, the matter being laid over until July.

Various entertaining games were the diversions, with prizes captured by Miss Lillian Saros, Mrs. Jennis LeVeccie and Mrs. Betty DeCarbo.

Later in the evening, the honoree was showered with an array of lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature. A pink and green color scheme was carried out in the attractive decorations.

The hostess served a dainty lunch, assisted by the Misses Amelia Abraham, Lillian Saros, and Mrs. Benjamin Blundo.

Miss DeCarbo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy DeCarbo of 1020 Huey street, will become the bride of John Pagani, son of Mrs. Louise Pagani, 911 Maryland avenue.

The occasion will be informal, at which time the young newlyweds, together with their parents, will receive relatives and friends. The reception will begin at 7 p. m.

1939 Sewing Circle

Mrs. Angelo Carbone, of Beckford street, received the 1939 Sewing Circle, Wednesday evening.

Sewing was the pastime and later the club token was won by Mrs. Guy Matricardi. Plans were made for a picnic at Cascade park on July 1, with husbands as guests.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostess, aided by her daughter, Connie.

June 28, is the meeting with Mrs. Vito Pizzitola, of Harrison street.

NANCY LEHMAN WEDS BENEDICT BROWN

Traditional gleaming white slipper satin was worn by Miss Nancy Ellen Lehman as she became the bride of Benedict Carl Brown, on Saturday, June 10.

Impressive double wedding ring vows were repeated by the young couple in St. Mary's church at 10 a.m., with Rev. Fr. Francis P. King officiating. Bouquets of lovely white snapdragons, ferns, and palms decorated the altar.

Miss Lehman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Lehman of Thorpe street, and Mrs. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Brown, Sunset avenue, Grove City.

The attractive young brunette bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown's neckline, trimmed with a fold of dainty lace and rhinestones, dramatized the fitted bodice of the charming creation. An exquisite peplum, edged with lace, added to the grace of the vast skirt ending in a short train. Delicate lace extended around the edge of the train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried pearl rosaries gifts of the groom. Calla lilies made up her bridal bouquet, and she carried a lace handkerchief which her mother had carried on her wedding day.

Miss Lorena Lehman, sister of the bride, headed the bridal procession as maid of honor. She was attractively attired in a nile green taffeta gown, featured with a hoop skirt. The lovely simplicity of the fitted bodice was enhanced by a shirred bertha at the yoke. A picture hat of nile green lace and a bouquet of yellow daisies completed the ensemble.

Bridesmaids for the occasion were Miss Bertha Vallely and Mrs. Carl Oswald. They wore with charm moire gowns styled like that of the maid of honor. Dainty Juliet hats were trimmed in green, and pink daisies made up their bouquets.

Robert Brown, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering were Emil Brown, uncle of the groom, and George Vascik, cousin of the groom.

The boys' choir of the church, accompanied by the organist, sang appropriate nuptial selections for the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a breakfast for 45 guests was held at The Castleton hotel. A reception was held at the bride's home for 125 guests from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Einar Tuuri was in charge of serving at the reception. Aides were Miss Evell Walls, who poured. Miss Peg O'Leary, Misses Pauline and Mary Nolan, Miss Darlene Lesnials, and Miss Ruth Cummings, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Raymond V. Flavion and Mrs. Elmer Mitcheltree, aunts of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

An evening reception was held at the Grove City Country club. The newlyweds later departed for a wedding trip to Chicago by car. Upon their return, the couple will reside at their newly furnished apartment on Sunset avenue, Grove City.

Mrs. Brown, a graduate of the local high school, had been employed as an accountant for the Pennsylvania Power company. Mrs. Brown, a graduate of the Grove City high school, is associated with his father in the Brown Brothers, coal company in Grove City.

FORECAST OF VACATION TRAGEDIES?

A shocking list of highway, drowning and other deaths over the past week-end provided a really terrifying foretaste of a huge toll of vacation tragedies ahead of us.

It is only wearisomely true that virtually every accident reported could have been prevented. It is inconceivable how persons on that motor cruiser could have missed a lock entrance and been carried over a dam, causing the death of four persons, in the Allegheny river near Pittsburgh. The river is of moderate width. The spot where the tragedy occurred is well known.

Other drownings and a series of automobile crashes and fatal highway mishaps reflect the pattern of heedlessness of danger and neglect of ordinary precautions that makes every summer week-end a nightmare.

If only the ordinary rules of safety and common sense were observed by more persons, the week-after-week lists of accidental deaths would be greatly reduced. The urge to get ahead of other cars on the road, to save a few minutes in getting to one's destination, to take chances by passing red lights, is responsible for many tragedies.

From the way the season has begun this vacation period of 1950 bids fair to rank as one of the most tragic in the long, shameful accident record of America. It need not be so, but it could only be averted if people would follow the decent rule of consideration for their own lives and the lives of others.

Following that course doesn't mean that people would have to spend their time in fearful anticipation of danger. They can have a good time and go on having it—alive—if they will live up to that rule.

GOVERNMENT JOBS

In 1949 more than 7,000,000 persons—one out of every eight persons employed in this country—held jobs under the federal, state and local governments.

A lot of "progress" has been made since 1900. In that year the federal, state and local governments employed slightly over 1,000,000 persons—one out of every 23 of the country's workers.

Total employment, public and private, increased 115 per cent in less than half a century. But government employment increased over 525 per cent.

These statistics, compiled by the National Industrial Conference Board, suggest an interesting topic of speculation: How long will it be, if that rate of gain continues, before all the country's workers are working for the various governments?

Of course, in a different sense, every worker in the United States is already working for those governments a big part of the time.

All workers, that is, must contribute a large share of their earnings to pay the cost of federal, state and local government.

But few workers realize how large that share is. That's because so much of the various government's revenue is collected in the form of hidden taxes—taxes included in the price of everything the workers buy.

If more workers did realize how much they pay to support their governments, demands for public economy would be far louder and more effective.

And, chances are public pay rolls would stop growing.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

WAKEFIELD, MASS., DAILY ITEM: "The late Samuel Gompers probably was the most level-headed and sincere labor leader the country's workers ever had.

"He held that the worst crime an employer could commit against his workers was to fail to make a profit."

EUREKA, KAN., HERALD: "Socialized medicine will fix it so that little Johnny will have to wait six months to get an engagement with the dentist. Which, when he hears about it, will make little Johnny in favor of socialized medicine."

IBERIA, MO., SENTINEL: "We know what makes a wild cat wild! For 16 governmental bureaus are working against each other in efforts to save and preserve our wild life"

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, DAILY CURRENT-ARGUS: "Do you ever get tired of newspapers talking about freedom of the press and free access to news? Perhaps so, and so do we. But eternal vigilance is necessary."

INDIANOLA, MISS., SUNFLOWER TOCSIN: "Our top officials say they will veto any tax cut not accompanied by a corresponding replacement of funds obtained by new or increased taxes elsewhere. No chance for increased efficiency or elimination of sinecures."

Many radio comedians, we read, are making plans to enter television. That's what we were afraid of.

Peter the Great sought to bring Russia into Europe. And now it's Joe Stalin who's trying to pull a switch on that stunt.

A clothing authority says Joe Stalin is the worst-dressed man in the world. Might be one of the reasons he refuses to come from behind that iron curtain.

An eastern college student seeks a doctorate degree by writing a thesis on the art of card playing. With an ace of an idea like that he should hit the jackpot.

Astronomers advise us that Pluto, long believed about as big as the earth, is really only half as big. As far as planets go, we'll be content with this large, economy-size globe.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

French Hopes Are Dashed

French hopes of early effective action on Foreign Minister Robert Schuman's coal-iron-steel integration plan were dashed by exposition of the British attitude which can best be described as "wait and see".

Prime Minister Clement Attlee tackled the difficult problem of possible British participation when the House of Commons reassembled after the long Whitsuntide holiday.

Not Committed

Only a few hours before he stood in parliament to enunciate a policy without committing himself one way or another, the executive committee of the Labor party had rejected the proposal out of hand.

That was far from unexpected. The Laborites have sponsored and passed many measures which have shaken old imperial concepts to their foundations.

But they never for one moment have failed to place commonwealth ties and interests above anything else.

Attlee had to face open and implied criticism all over the European continent that Britain is "dragging her feet" in general post-war recovery and is adopting a dangerous "isolationism" while the rest of the western world is attempting to pull together.

Fortunately for him and his party, Attlee has a deep knowledge of all parliamentary devices. In the United States his speech might have been called "double talk". In more decorous European parlance it was shrewd elocution.

In effect, Attlee said that Britain admired Schuman's initiative and thought his plan sounded fine.

Only As A Plan

But only as a plan. For Great Britain—he declared—cannot be expected to rush blindly into a perhaps Utopian scheme before it knows fully just what the consequences might be.

Obviously, that means an indefinite delay. The Schuman plan is conceded to be a highly complicated one. Originally drafted as a Franco-German scheme of cooperation, itinevitably must affect Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg as well as Britain.

In addition, it cannot help but have major effects upon exports and imports, upon salaries and wages, upon standards of living, upon relations between employer and employee and perhaps upon the whole economic fibre of the entire world.

Attlee offered one compensation for his own equivocal stand and the Labor party's firm rejection of the scheme.

This was his insistence that Britain is more than ready to take part in over-all plans for European revival and to sacrifice national sovereignty when the time is ripe. He said:

In Decisive Stage

"As a result of recent conferences in London, we are about to enter a formative and decisive stage in organization of the Atlantic community.

"This will require more effective pooling of resurces and also the surrender to an unprecedented degree by each country of the ability to do as it pleases.

"His majesty's government will be in the forefront of this endeavor."

The British attitude as expounded by Attlee is really nothing more or less than a trotting out of ancient Whitehall policy.

Governments change in England. But fundamental principles do not.

The impression has arisen that what Winston Churchill has called the "dismantlement" of the British empire is a Socialist concept entirely.

While it fell to the Labor regime to carry out several major amputations and even abolish the title of "emperor" after the name of King George, all the projects for dominion independence and the like were set in motion many years ago.

They were allowed to evolve as worked out by the permanent branches of the government in Whitehall, and a Labor government just happened to be in the office when the time came for establishment of the republics of India and Pakistan and the "liberation" of Burma.

Schuman probably expected that the British mill would grind slowly when it came to digesting his far-reaching plan.

Other elements in France, however, obviously are disappointed, chagrined and even angry. It is not impossible that Britain may be heading into another period of haevy criticism from the continent. All that can be said is that she has weathered it before.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

In this jittery generation children need more sleep than they are getting; and in summer with more daylight they get less than in winter. Even the pre-school child is less likely to get an afternoon nap, because of the heat and of the noises by other children.

If you are a wise mother your child under school age has had a regular afternoon nap, and he will continue having this nap through the summer. It would be fine if children a good deal older and their mothers were to sleep or at least lie down, for an hour or two daily during the summer. The child who stutters bites his nails or evinces other nervous habits should be required to conform to a daily rest period. (My bulletins, "The Child Who Stutters," and "Nail-biting and Other Nervous Habits" may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Not Well Disciplined

It's amazing how many youngsters four, three or even two get no nap by day. They don't because they have not been well disciplined. The mother or a capable substitute must be on hand to cultivate naptime sleeping, and the child must be and remain in a horizontal position at a regular time. This means he must have learned the meaning of 'No' and to stay where put.

Many young mothers not having succeeded in good control of the tot have kidded themselves to believe he does not need the nap or that if he has no nap he might go to sleep earlier by night. Then, some of these mothers not having learned to keep the youngsters in bed have just given up in despair. They and the youngster pay a heavy penalty during the later part of the day; the youngster for the rest of his life.

Two main problems with the tot at naptime are: to contain him in a horizontal position in bed and not to keep going to him constantly to minister to his many whimsical demands. The second problem is easy after the first is solved. You can let him call to you as long as you like but just act as if you were deaf. You should, however, give him occasional assurance that you are near.

The more happily you can get the little tyke off to bed the better, of course, but if reasonable allurements fail, just pick him up and put him into bed and tell him not to get up. Whether this command of yours will be obeyed will depend on how well he has learned to respect 'No' at other times of the day. It's a lot easier to train him to accept 'No' as final while he is right in your presence in the kitchen or living room than when you must leave him after he is tucked into bed.

Therefore, if you can't keep your tot in bed at naptime it might be better to go on doing as you have been doing but to center your efforts on geting him under control in more favorable situations; so well under control, indeed, that you can abandon spanking and substitute chair-sitting punishment effectively.

Even so, if your tot from two to five has not been staying down in bed at naptime you will need to be close at hand so you can be sure to smack his bare thighs evry time he gets up in bed or out of it too soon. Of course, he will seek "senatorial immunity" for going to the toilet. Settle this by letting him go just once. Better an occasional accident than the going-to-the-toilet nuisance at bedtime. I discuss these matters further in my bulletin, "Sleep Problems," to be had in the usual way by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Folks Of Fame

Born in Ledbury, England, in 1878, poet and novelist John Masefield spent his youth in many occupations and countries, even serving before the mast at sea. These experiences are reflected in his work. Some of his publications are: Salt Water Ballads; A Mainsail Haul; A Tarpaulin Master. Some of his ballads are Captain Margaret; The Tragedy of Nan; The Daffodil Fields; Philip the King. Sonnets and poems: Sea-Poems, The Passing Strange, A Consecration; also he has written many novels and plays. He has been poet laureate of England since 1930.

This is another of the sirens of the screen with whom your dad probably temporarily "in love" in his callous youth. Evelyn Brent has made recent pictures too. Born in Tampa, Fla., in 1899, she played in pictures in England as well as the United States and also a series of melodramas, such as Underworld, Last Command, Beau Sabruer, Drag Net, Showdown. Later in the twenties she played in Broadway, The Mating Call, Darkened Rooms. From 1941 her pictures have been: Emergency Landing, Dangerous Lady, Westward Ho, Wrecking Crew and The Payoff. Her most recent films are Bowery Champs and Draw When You're Ready.

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

Vacation time is definitely here . . . the cards are beginning to arrive from those faraway places . . . with those wonderful little notes saying, "having a grand old time . . . so glad you are not here". But what is more interesting are the pictures that decorate the cards . . . some mighty fine art work . . . the most beautiful calfs. At the end of the summer we get all the cards from the vacationists together and have a good time rereading the messages . . . so you see a little card from the mountains, the seashore or just from any old place tickles those at home more than once . . . In our particular case . . . we tack up the cards as they arrive all summer and the brightness adds a bit of color to the hot summer days.

* * *

We are reminded of this slogan as we think of vacationists . . . it appears on the rear-end of some large trucks . . . SAFETY IS NOT AN ACCIDENT . . . those five little words sure pack a big wallop. And it's a slogan that we can repeat to ourselves as we drive about the country side . . . And it might just slow you down a wee bit . . . you will arrive on time IF you learn to give yourself enough time between engagements.

* * *

Sixty miles an hour won't get you there much quicker than 50 miles an hour . . . and in many cases the lower speed will get you there . . . but let us say this one thing and maybe it won't be agreed by the officers of the open road . . . The driver that pokes along the highway at a very low speed is also a menace to traffic . . . and often times is the cause of a serious accident. Moderation and good judgment work wonders in many situations . . . driving, eating or just anything.

* * *

But don't think that all this talk about SAFETY IS NOT AN ACCIDENT as a sermon . . . or any of the talk that you read in the newspapers concerning safety as a sermon . . . But consider it as a reminder . . . and if you look at the fatal accidents records on this nation every week . . . you surely can see that something drastic must be done to improve these records. You and I are the ones who must do something before we are federalized . . . This is the United States.

'VISITING FIREMAN'

Enroute To Damascus

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

DAMASCUS BOUND, June 15.—The Clipper Talisman has just pulled up her feet and tucked in her flaps after leaving the runway to London Airport, and is about to swing onto the route that leads to Damascus.

If you have nothing else to do, pull up a chair and let's look out the window together. First Officer Cleo Deregibus of Forest Hills, N. Y., has obligingly provided me with a flight plan so that we'll know what we are seeing as the "Connie" roars through the sunshine of a perfect day toward the oldest city in the world.

That's the Thames down there now. We are flying parallel to it, and it's not hard to pick out the familiar London landmarks.

The ship is climbing, and the city already is lost in a haze, but the lovely English countryside, laid out as orderly as squares in kitchen linoleum, looks as if nothing had disturbed it in centuries.

Lot of Persons Seasick

The Channel is straight ahead, and you can bet that a lot of poor souls crossing by boat today are seasick, because the white caps really are tossing. The little town below is Manston, and just a few miles north the white cliffs of Dover can be seen if your eyesight is 20-20 or thereabouts.

Here is the French coast and off to the right just aa few miles is Dunkirk.

We're really travelling now. Brussels and Liege are behind and down below is Frankfort-on-Rhine. This shipload of Americans is having a lot easier time crossing it today than the GI's did a few years back.

We've been gone about two and a half hours, and Captains John Nolan and Tom Williamson are letting the "Connie" down for a stop at Munich.

Evidence of Pasting

There is plenty of evidence of the pasting the Allies gave Munich still to be seen. There's a new modern terminal building, but surrounding it are burned hulks of buildings. No sign of Mr. Chamberlain's celebrated umbrella as we walk from the plane to the terminal—only a score of workmen in discarded khaki uniforms, and a young one-armed German in field green uniform who seems to be some sort of a guard.

No good Munich beer inside. Only a waiting room and a small gift counter offering dolls, cameras, and cigarette lighters for sale.

Munich cleared, we start to climb for sure. Ahead are the Bavarian and Austrian Alps. Soon we are over them, the taller ones mantled in snow.

Below is Yugoslavia. Hasn't been long since this was forbidden territory. But with Tito's split with the Cominform our planes now can go straight across Zagreb and Belgrade.

Salomka Ahead

You'll notice that the terrain, now that Belgrade is behind and Salonika is ahead, has changed from flat farmland to rolling mountains at the Greek border. In these mountains the toughest part of the Greek civil war fighting took place.

Purser Walter Morris and Stewardess Florence Topleski give us dinner as we make a left turn at Salonika and start on the leg to Istanbul. The skipper is careful, as we pass Samothrace in the Aegean Sea, to be careful to miss the Iron Curtain of the Bulgarian border by a good 35 miles.

A 45-minute stop at Istanbul and a half dozen cups of that thick, black Turkish coffee. No stop now until Damascus. Below is the lovely Turkish lake and mountain country.

Cyprus is passed. Not long until Beirut is cleared, and the "Connie" starts easing down to Damascus.

Nothing to it, if all you have to do is ride, and not pilot. Wonder what kind of a left turn I would have made at Salonika?

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

(By International News Service)

They just found a fellow in Virginia who is the father of 20 children and if he doesn't get the father of the year award in 1951 the committee needs a new ribbon on its adding machine.

And he's the kind of fellow would appreciate a trip to New York. . . . Married 21 years and hardly been out of the house.

And any man who can raise 20 children at today's prices either is getting crop support or he has discovered a new route to economics.

But Secretary Snyder says we're all doing well. . . . If you aren't you just aren't reading the government reports of prosperity.

Do you know that last year the American people had so much money in their savings accounts that most of them owed it to somebody?

And we can do better this year if we try.

They Say

WELLESLEY, Mass.—ECA Chief Paul G. Hoffman—"I have small patience with those who think it should be 'the let's-drop-a-bomb-on-Moscow-an-get-it-over-with' school of thought."

DALLAS, Tex. — Secretary of State Acheson—"Isolationists want the U. S. to pull down the blinds and sit in the parlor with a loaded shotgun, waiting."

WASHINGTON—Sen. Capehart (R) Ind., referring to the Amerasia case—"Why did the man who revealed the content of restricted documents escape without a jail sentence and a meager $2,500 fine, when a doughboy would have been shot or at least imprisoned for revealing to the enemy so much as a one-man foxhole."

BONN—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer—"The entire German people want to abolish all psychological differences between France and Germany as this is the only way to peace in Europe."

And cunning in his mind.
Pretense is at his finger tips;
His coat for theft designed.

He has been tutored to betray,
Deception to employ,
To work in every traitorous way
Man's freedom to destroy.

As loyal man he will appear
Well garbed and fair to see,
But since he has no God to fear
A dangerous man is he.

Be watchful for him, and beware
His subtle, whispered lies,
For he's the foe of all that's fair
And everything we prize.

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

It Was Bound To Happen

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Sooner or later it was bound to happen. Organizations of the reactionary right have come up against the same kind of treatment meted out for a considerable time by Congress to organizations of the extreme left.

The committee for constructional government faces possible contempt action by a House committee investigating lobbyists and their sources of revenue. Dr. Edward A. Rumley, executive secretary of the committee, has refused to produce records showing who paid the costs to send out vast quantities of propaganda including John T. Flynn's book, "The Road Ahead."

Close Parallel

This case would seem to parallel closely that of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refuge Committee, which is the attorney general's list of subversive organizations. That committee refused to produce its records showing how it was financed. Eleven committee members were sentenced to from three to six months in jail. Having finally exhausted all legal appeals, they are about to serve their sentences, thus ending nearly four years of dispute.

The Committee for Constitutional Government is just now at the beginning of what may prove to be a similar development. Rumley has refused once to produce the records sought by the Lobby committee.

But the committee plans a second and carefully prepared hearing at which he again will be called upon to produce the private records of his organization. The purpose is to make plain, if he refuses, why a citation for contempt is inevitable. Rumley, in other words, will be put publicly in the position of defying a duly constituted committee of Congress.

To Go Beyond This

The Lobby committee, headed by Representative Frank Buchanan of Pennsylvania, has ambitious plans that go beyond this. Members of the staff believe it will be possible to show a carefully worked-out and well-financed plan to destroy the Democratic party, or more accurately the Fair Deal section of the party, using the Flynn book as the chief weapon of propaganda.

Indications are, according to committee investigators, that 10,000,000 copies have been distributed thus far in addition to magazine reprints. The Committee for Constitutional Government is reported to have sent 670,000 copies and the American Medical Association 1,500,000.

According to present plans, Flynn will be called to testify. He is to be asked about reports that he entered into a contract for a large lump-sum payment to write "The Road Ahead," which is a denunciation of most of the measures associated with the concept of the welfare state.

Supplying Funds?

Lobby committee investigators have evidence indicating that several wealthy individuals in Texas and Colorado, who are personally paying for the distribution of large numbers of the Flynn book, are also supplying funds to aid Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, in his attacks on the State Department. The McCarthy help is being funneled in part at least through the Nationalist China lobby. If current leads can be proved up through further investigation, the committee intends to look into that lobby, which has generally been considered to be the most flourishing and well-heeled in the whole roster.

Under attack, the Committee for Constitutional Government is making a loud outcry about the violation of the rights and freedoms guaranteed under the constitution. A letter appealing for funds quotes the Bill of Rights:: "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech or of the press" and again, "the right of people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable search and seizure."

Interestingly enough, this same Bill of Rights and other constitutional guarantees were invoked by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. In repeated appeals the same arguments in behalf of the right of privacy and the right of free speech were raised.

An important distinction may, of course, be made—the Anti-Fascist Committee is linked by the attorney general to Communism and the Communist conspiracy. But the fact remains that the contempt charged against the Anti-Fascist Committee appears to be based on the same refusal to produce private papers that the Committee for Constitutional Government may eventually be found guilty of.

I do not like to see people put in jail for their ideas or their political beliefs, whether they are of the extreme right or the extreme left; such a precedent is exceedingly dangerous to all of us who cherish the freedoms that have made this nation great. It is dangerous in particular because freedom is indivisible. If you jail members of one unpopular group for its ideas, sooner or later you will jail another unpopular group and finally all who dare to think and to speak.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Something is wrong with modern education.

There are altogether too many student riots, too many disturbances in our schools, too wide a gap between pupils and teachers.

The usual procedure is to blame "modern youth"—just as modern youth has always been blamed.

It is not modern youth at all, and I should really not have said "modern" education at all.

I should have said "something is wrong with education". Something has always been wrong with education.

The whole trouble is that far too few people, and particularly those responsible for the education of our children, have the right conception of the purpose of education.

Why do we educate our children?

Why do we make them go to school for many years and during the most formative period of their lives?

Certainly not to cram a lot of Latin and Greek, physics and mathematics, history, literature and art into them.

Certainly not to make them into walking encyclopedias.

Certainly not to turn them into snobs and stuffed shirts.

Even the best educated person in the country will never be able to compete with the World Almanac.

THE SOLE PURPOSE OF EDUCATION IS TO MAKE THE CHILD A USEFUL CITIZEN.

In that respect our educational authorities have failed woefully.

Don't just take my word for that, although I have talked to hundreds of youngsters and found that only a miserable minority have much use for school in its present form.

But you may want to take the word of Dr. R. M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, who is supposed to be an authority on education.

He bitterly complained about the fact that in spite of better schools and advanced methods the quality of citizenship is steadily declining.

There has been a terrifying letdown in governmental ethics.

Graft, greed, hypocrisy, disloyalty, treachery, immorality, lying and self-aggrandisement are openly alleged and undoubtedly prevalent. To deny this would be to admit that there can be a lot of smoke without any fire.

If we have shysters, crooks, traitors in our government—who are they?

They are former children who should have been educated to patriotic and useful citizenship!

I don't believe in hereditary dishonesty.

In "South Pacific" there is a song "You've got to be taught".

You've got to be taught to love your country. You've got to be taught to appreciate it, to serve it.

And you've got to be taught if you hate it and betray it.

Russia has schools for communists, for spies.

Let our schools be schools for patriots, for good citizens, for honest government servants.

That is the purpose of education!

State Resumes Traffic Survey

To Study Urban Travel In Leading Centers

By AL SPIVAK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, June 15.—The State Highway department this summer will resume its extensive municipal traffic survey designed to touch every urban center in Pennsylvania.

The survey will get under way in Scranton June 19, and in Altoona and Uniontown later in the summer.

"Eventually we will have made this type of survey in every urban community of 5,000 or more population in the commonwealth," according to Highway Planning Survey Chief H. G. Van Riper.

The poll entails roadside and home interviews of a representative 10 per cent sampling of an area's population.

"We obtain from these people information about every trip they made on the day before the interview," he explained. "That includes automobiles, trucks, buses — everything except motorcycles and pedestrians."

Processed at Once

Van Riper said the information is processed immediately, with no wait until the entire state is covered. Plans for the Schuylkill expressway to Philadelphia and for bypasses in the Norristown area are cited as examples of survey results.

"We call this an origin and destination survey," Van Riper said. "It gives us a complete picture of the travel habits of the area."

The survey was tried first in Harrisburg in 1946. The following year it covered the Philadelphia-Camden, N. J., area.

Subsequent surveys were made in Reading, Erie, Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton, Norristown, West Chester, Pottstown, Johnstown, Meadville Sharon and Farrell.

Complete coverage of the state's municipalities is far in the futhre, Van Riper indicated, because only three or four localities are visited each year. Each survey lasts throughout the summer.

An additional summer survey is planned this year, according to Van Riper, to measure use of roads between Carlisle and Philadelphia where traffic will be affected by completion of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's eastern extension.

Van Riper said interviewing stations will be set up on routes which will provide future turnpike competition and on feeder roads.

A similar survey on the turnpike's western extension is not yet anticipated, he said.

Foreign Military Aid Program Adding 100 Employes Daily

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(INS)—Congress was told that the foreign military aid program is adding 100 employes a day to the federal payroll.

The Joint Committee on the Reduction of Federal Spending said in a report that as of May 1, nearly 10,000 civilian employes had been assigned to the aid program.

The report, prepared under the direction of Sen. Byrd (D) Va., committee chairman, stated that there were 2,093,312 federal civilian employees during April, an increase over March of 1,417.

The Post Office department and the Veterans Administration each cut their payrolls by several thousands, but these reductions were more than compensated by increase in the Army and Air Force, the Department of Agriculture, Interior and Commerce and the Housing Agency.

While the army showed a boost of 2,008 in civilian employees and the air force a boost of 1,217, the navy's civilian payroll dropped 1,047.

The report showed that as of the end of April the military aid program had 9,567 civilians on its staff, an increase of 3,703 over the March figure.

Pennsylvania Cows Unaware Of Strike

HARRISBURG, June 15.—(INS)—Unaware of the strike against milk deliveries in some sections of the state, Pennsylvania cows keep producing milk in record quantities.

To look good in June dairy month, Pennsylvania dairy herds racked up a record-breaking 600,000,000 pounds of milk during May, according to the State Agriculture department.

Production represented nearly four per cent above the previous high of 579,000,000 registered last May.

Meanwhile, farmers are making hay while the sun shines. Favored by the sunny days, farmers in the southeastern and central counties are harvesting hay and cutting alfalfa.

The department reported that fruits, grains and other crops are generally progressing on schedule.

PERFECT TIMING

SAN FRANCISCO — (INS) — When Henry Thompson of San Francisco heard the telephone ring in his home he moved so quickly he stumbled over the cord and broke his leg. When he finally got the receiver to his ear, a voice announced: "I wonder if I could take up a little of your time, I'm selling accident insurance."

YW Staff Pre-Camp Conference To Be Planned Saturday

YWCA staff members will leave for Camp East Brook for a pre-camp conference on Saturday, June 17, to complete plans for the summer camping periods.

The first period, starting on June 20, at 10 a.m. will be for the campers between ages of 6 and 9 years. A few more registrations may be accepted still for this period.

Everything is set for an excellent camping period, and an immaculate cottage, cleaned and painted awaits the girls. A new bathroom, sink, stove and refrigerator have been installed as modern conveniences.

All preparations are being completed and all that is needed now is sunshine and warm weather for swimming.

Cooks who will prepare the meals are Misses Marie and Viola Graham, who are cooks at Westminster college. The nurse will be Catherine Tommelleo, of Cunningham avenue, a graduate of West Penn hospital in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Counselors are: Elaine English with Mary Louise Campbell at the pool; and Janet Everett for campcraft; Lois Bender for handicraft; Mary Clements for sports; Marston Whieldon for music and dramatics. Shirley Webber is the assistant director and Mrs. R. G. Eakin is the director.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Witon of Croton avenue are the new caretakers and will have the place "spick and span," on the opening day of camp.

Two additional camping periods have been planned. More registrations may be accepted for the third period. There will be one week of camping for the Elm Street YWCA girls, this to be from August 1-7.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, June 15.—(INS)—Mink, leopard and broadtail accessories are the hottest fashions of the coming summer!

The Associated Fur Manufacturers indicated today that any lady without a tanned skin for her tan skin will be out in the cold, stylishly speaking.

American women of mode and means will be wearing:

Half-inch-wide bracelets of mink or leopard in their bare upper arms; band of white mink clipped to nosegays of posies on their bare wrists; and triangles of supple broadtail, the size of large bandannas, around their bare shoulders.

Top fashion too will be mole stoles, six inches wide and long enough to circle the neck and dangle to the hemline, tuxedo fashion, in front. These stoles, when flung casually about the shoulders, are said (by the fur manufacturers) to be the snitziest set-off yet dreamed up for the strapless top dress.

LIKES SYLVAN HEIGHTS

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12, 1950.

New Castle News,

Gentlemen:

Stopping at your very fine Castleton Hotel over last week-end, I inquired at the desk, as to whether there was a Municipal Golf Course in New Castle, and the genial manager, Mr. O'Brien, directed me to the Sylvan Heights Course. In my business, I cover a good deal of the eastern and southern section of the country, and my favorite recreation, is hunting up, and playing the various Municipal Golf Courses, so that I have become familiar with many of them.

I became so intrigued with the attractions of your Sylvan Heights, that I am moved to compliment your city, on the possession of one of the most attractive Public Courses, on which I have played. There is little rough, and the traps are few and small, so that one gets the idea that it is a simple, and easy course at par. Not so. Appearances are frequently deceptive. None more so than at your Sylvan Heights. This seems to be a case where you built better than you knew, and I am complimenting you on your achievement.

Sincerely

S. M. CRAWFORD.

Expedition Seeks Migration Traces Near Bering Sea

PHILADELPHIA, June 15—(INS)—Four University of Pennsylvania museum archaeologist Wednesday embarked upon a summer expedition seeking traces of early migrations from Asia to Alaska.

The expedition, head by Museum Director Dr. Froelich G. Rainey, departed for the Bering Strait region in Alaska where it will work in conjunction with Danish and Alaska University archaeologists.

The group hopes to discover definite proof of the truth of a theory long held by scientists that early Alaskan inhabitants crossed the Bering Strait from the Siberian wastes of Asia.

Dr. Rainey, an authority on Eskimo civilization and culture, said the expedition will return to the mainland in September.

Discovery On Queen's Rug

NEW YORK, June 15.—(INS)—It took the curator of an American art institute to discover that Queen Mary's needle-point rug is patterned after seventeenth century French prints of eighteenth century English designs.

"Her Majesty and all of us connected with the rug thought its needle point designs were patterned after English floral arrangements of the eighteen century," said Patricia Hardie, the exhausted young Britisher who has just accompanied the Queen's rug on a fast coast-to-coast tour of the United States and Canada.

"But," she continued, a bit ruefully, "when the rug was being shown at the Minneapolis Art Institute, some nice young curator looked at it carefully and then produced a number of seventeenth century French prints which were almost identical and surely the fore-runners of the English eighteen century floral arrangements."

Furthermore, said Miss Hardie, who sails for England on Friday, not all American and Canadian children are nurtured on comic books. She encountered thousands of them who obviously still read fairy stories in the classic pattern.

Were Disappointed

"Every so many children asked me how Queen Mary lived and were terribly disappointed that she doesn't live in a palace," Miss Hardie disclosed. "And they were even more disappointed to learn that she doesn't wear a crown all day long every day."

Children in a democracy expect more of royalty, Miss Hardie suspects, than do moppets raised in a hereditary monarchy.

More than 500,000 persons have seen the Queen's rug since it started on tour in New York some two months ago. Her Majesty, who worked eight years on the rug which is approximately 7 by 10 feet, hopes to sell it to the highest bidder in Canadian or American dollars, as her contribution toward England's dollar shortage.

When Miss Hardie sails for home after touring some 15,000 miles with the needle-point masterpiece, the rug will be stacked away in the New York vaults of J. P. Morgan and Co., until such time as the sealed bids are opened in London at the Bank of England.

A report of a bid of $1,250,000 for the Queen's handiwork is as grossly exaggerated as Mark Twain's death, Miss Hardie said. She and Col. Angus McDonald, who have managed the tour, are certain no such fantastic bid has been offered.

"All bids received are sealed and none will be opened until at least June 16 in London. Consequently, none of us have any idea what has been bid for the rug, or even how many bids will be received by that date," Miss Hardie said.

However, it is my hunch that at least some bids will mention plenty of scratch, since the copyright and reproduction rights go with the queen rug. Carpet manufacturers and a dozen novelty concerns have already asked permission to copy the patterns in everything from carpets to neckerchiefs.

But until eventual ownership of the rug is settled via sealed bids in London, the purchase of reproduction rights must be held in abeyance. Sealed bids may still be sent to J. P. Morgan, New York, or the Bank of England, London.

Miss Hardie said that scores of women in every city in which the rug was displayed asked her where they could get the design and thus duplicate the Queen's needle work.

In most American and Canadian cities, the rug was displayed in the local art museum. To protect it from any possible damage, the rug was usually hung on a wall as a tapestry, rather than displayed on the floor as a rug.

The result was that thousands of persons asked Miss Hardie why Her Majesty had made the top half of the rug up-side-down!

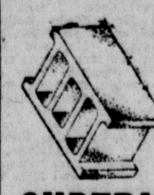

But the $64 comment, Miss Hardie said, came from an old lady who had obviously never done needlepoint but who vowed the rug with awe as well as admiration. Finally, the old lady sighed and said:

"Dear me, it must have been very difficult for Her Majesty to do the top half up-side-down while on a ladder! And at her age!"

REYNOLDS-LENZ CHURCH NUPTIALS

Miss Alice Louise Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Reynolds, Wilmington road, was united in marriage to Gerald Wayne Lenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Lenz, New Castle, R.D. 5, at a beautiful summer wedding Wednesday evening, June 14, at 7:30 o'clock.

A large gathering of friends and relatives attended the ceremony that took place in Second U.P. church with Rev. J. Calvin Rose reading the impressive double ring service.

The attractive bride, given in marriage by her brother, Hilbert W. Reynolds, was attired in a wedding gown of Goddess lace over satin, styled with fitted bodice, long sleeves, circular skirt and a long train. Lace applique trimmed the nylon yoke. Her finger-tip veil of nylon illusion fell from a bonnet, decorated with seed pearls. She wore a single strang of pearls, the groom's gift, and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. There was a lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Wilmer Glenn, the bride's sister, serving as matron of honor, wore a gown of pink lace over taffeta, fashioned similarly to the bride's. Mrs. Lloyd McCracken and Miss Ruth Witherspoon, as bridesmaids, wore lace gowns over taffeta, styled with gathered skirts, Peter Pan collars and tiny buttons to the waists, Mrs. McCracken was gowned in aqua, while Miss Witherspoon wore yellow. The attendants wore half-hats that matched their gowns and carried colonial bouquets of roses with mixed flowers.

Clarence Lenz served as best man for the groom, while Edson Reynolds, Lloyd McCracken and Wilmer Glenn were ushers.

A basket of white peonies and snapdragons centered the altar that was decorated with palms and ferns for the candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. Richard K. Allen, organist, who played appropriate nuptial music, accompanied the Misses Pearl and Grace Lipp, twin sisters, who sang "Yours Is My Heart Alone," "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the exchange of vows, nearly 200 guests were entertained at a reception in the church parlors, where Mrs. Edson Reynolds and Mrs. Hilbert Reynolds, sisters-in-law of the bride, poured. Miss Donna Ashton cut the wedding cake, while Miss Matilda Green was in charge of the guest book.

Upon returned from a trip by automobile to Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Va., the young couple will reside in an apartment at the home of Mrs. Lenz's parents, Wilmington road.

Mrs. Lenz, a graduate of New Castle high school, is employed as hosiery buyer at the New Castle store. Her husband, also an alumnus of New Castle high school, is a junior in engineering at Pennsylvania State college, being presently employed by the Eckles Engineering Co., this city.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

A Helping Hand

Young people today, as well as in the past, want to feel that they are doing worthwhile things. As our way of life becomes more and more complex, direct help to our neighbors has become more difficult. Private and government agencies have taken over many of these responsibilities.

But there are still ways in which our youngsters may do jobs that are socially significant. The American Friends Service Committee runs projects in the summer months in which high school and college youngsters participate. They work on jobs that mean a better water system for a small southern town, a recreation building and program for a group of migrants in California or start rebuilding a Mexican village largely destroyed by an earthquake.

More and more groups are organizing work experiences for youth. It's something worth investigating for your own youngsters, for it may provide them with a summer they'll never forget.

WHO PAYS GIRL'S TRAVELLING EXPENSES?

"I shall accompany my family to a resort for several days, and I have invited my girl friend who lives in another state to meet me there. I should like to do the right thing and wish you would tell me what expenses I should assume, that is, shall I pay for her train fare, hotel bill and meals, or should I pay for only the hotel and meals?"

Answer: Since the young lady will be put to considerable expense by your invitation, you should, at least, assume her expenses when she arrives in town. If possible, "put her up" at your mother's home, the home of a relative or a close friend. If that is not possible, let her stay at a hotel at your expense, eating her meals, preferably, with your family or at least with you at the hotel. In other words, she should not be expected to eat her meals, other than breakfast and possibly lunch (if you are not available for that meal) alone.

If you will all stay at the resort hotel she should be included in all activities and eat all of her meals with you and your family. Offer to reimburse her for her train or bus fare or, preferably, send her tickets in advance of her trip.

Question: I am soon to be married to a man who is an executive in a large concern. If his staff and fellow-executives (whom I do not know) send gifts, who writes the notes of thanks? If I write them, how should I sign my name and should the notes be sent before or after the wedding?

Answer: The bride should send notes of thanks even to those friends of her husband whom she does not know. Sign your name "Mary Brown" omitting "Miss" and "Mary Brown Smith" on notes written after your marriage. Notes of thanks should be sent immediately upon receipt of each gift.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Judge Recalls Nation's Worth

Judge J. G. Lamoree Is Kiwanis Speaker

Addressing members of the New Castle Kiwanis Club, at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Wednesday noon, Judge John G. Lamoree recalled the things that made this nation great, with the admonition that we should be alert to the insiduous forces which would seek to destroy us.

The first settlers on our shores came here to avoid oppression and tyranny and adopted rules of conduct, which were later to become the laws of our land. In 1776, their descendants and other newcomers to our shores determined that we should be a free nation, and they adopted the Bill of Rights, which wah also a philosophy of freedom, the speaker related.

Must Stand Together

Early wars cemented our forebears into a nation of strong and righteous people, and again in '98 and 1917, our men went forth to make the "world safe for democracy," the judge stated.

We must stand togther and protect the great institutions, which have brought us greatness, he stated in conclusion, the sanctity of the home, the church, and school, so that our children can continue to enjoy the blessings which we enjoy, and their children's children.

The club voted and individually contributed the sum of $75, which will be sent to the Winnepeg Kiwanis Club for relief work in the flood area there.

A letter was read from the Glendale, Calif., Kiwanis club, urging the local club to back a proposed 23rd amendment to the constitution, which would return our government to the purpose and interests guaranteed in our original constitution, and do away with the waste in government which now totals thirteen billions of dollars annually.

Finds People Of World Living In Fear Of Future

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(INS)—Sen. Margaret Smith (R) Maine, just back from a global conference in Italy, said today she found people from all parts of the world living in fear of the future.

The Senate's only woman member said that dread of another world war was only one factor in the general picture of confusion.

Mrs. Smith was an official adviser of the American delegation to the United Nations educational, scientific and cultural organization's sessions at Florence.

School Board Member Hits At Subsidies

Mrs. Elizabeth Kleckner is a member of the New Castle school board. She is a Democrat, but in spite of this is firmly against the idea of subsidies.

In a statement that left no doubt as to her position in the matter she declared herself Wednesday night in the school board meeting. The statement was made during a consideration of whether or not the board would continue the subsidized school lunches and free milk program next year.

Manager Reports

The matter came before the board when Director Alex Samuels, chairman of the cafeteria committee, made his report of the cafeteria operation in the schools for the past year.

Mrs. Rachel P. Taylor, manager of the school cafeterias, was present and presented some figures on the operation of the cafeterias for the past year. She asked if the board wished her to continue the subsidized plate lunch program for the coming year.

At this point Mrs. Kleckner said "I am a member of the cafeteria committee and I will make my report but I am not yet ready. I believe this matter can lay over until July.

"But as to subsidies I want to say this: I am a Democrat, but I am firmly opposed to the idea of our accepting government subsidies. I believe we can do a better job in the cafeterias without any government help."

Chairman Samuels said: "I too am against subsidies but as long as Congress is giving the money away we might as well get our share."

Start Somewhere

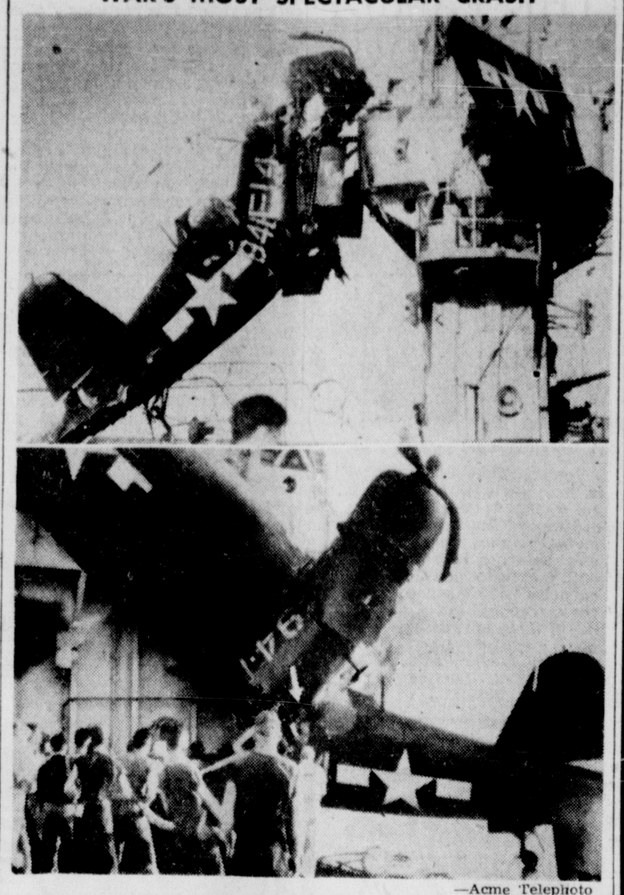

Said President Wilbur E. Flannery: "If we are ever going to get away from government subsidies, somebody, somewhere, has to refuse them."

Mrs. Kleckner: "Well, I may be just a still small voice, but I am firmly opposed to our taking any more government subsidies."

"What about the free milk?" asked Mrs. Taylor. "I'm against that idea, also," said Mrs. Kleckner. "In other words I am against all government subsidies."

Action will be taken in July.

WAR'S MOST SPECTACULAR CRASH

—Acme Telephoto

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Considered the war's most spectacular carrier crash this previously unreleased photo shows an F4U piloted by Lt. Jg. John H. Lahey, ramming the island of the carrier Prince William. Lahey in attempting to land tried to use power to clear the deck when he failed to land his plane in his approach the first time. The plane crashed into the island pinning Lahey, who suffered third degree burns. Five crewmen were injured. The accident was attributed to an error by the pilot during landing qualifications test. Combo is side views of the same crash, from different sides of the plane.

Shrine Luncheon Cub Will Meet

Members of the Shrine Luncheon club will have their weekly luncheon meeting and jam session in The Castleton, Friday noon.

In spite of the fact that many of the members will be enroute to the Imperial Council sessions in Los Angeles, a good attendance is looked for Dr. E. L. Vincent, the president stated today.

Safe-Cracking Attempts Fails

Safe-crackers, believed to have been amateurs, made an unsuccessful effort to break into the Zehner Bros. safe last night, according to a report at police headquarters. The concern is located in South street.

They pounded off the combination then tried to hammer a nail file in to disrupt the tumbler.

The safe-crackers got their hammer and other tools used in the attempted opening from a truck of the company.

The attempted to crack the safe was discovered by Clifford Zeigler, manager, this morning.

Young Farmers Hear Veterinarian

Lawrence county young farmers heard Dr. Albert L. Opp, veterinarian, who has recently returned after 12 years of duty in the Panama Canal Zone, at their meeting in the Court House Wednesday evening.

Dr. Opp traced the history of the country of Panama, and spoke of the government's battle to reduce tropical disease, and improve sanitation.

He concluded his talk with a discussion of cattle habits and diseases, and their care, which proved most interesting.

The street railway car was designed by John Stephenson about 1832.

BROCKTON, Mass., June 15.—(INS)—Home cooking won out over dignity on the Brockton police force.

In The Open

There was no sound of revelry by night. The gay carnival whirled in silent pageantry, dancing through the gloaming and on into the dark hours. Fairy lanterns carried by the revellers floated lazily above the wide grassy bottomlands as fireflies by the tens of thousansd danced to the rasping fiddles of the cricket orchestra. No moon rose up to mar the brilliance of the stirring spectacle. Etched against the black void of the night, the sudden luminous traceries of the carefree dancing were beautiful beyond description.

The countryman loves the day's aftermath, that period of gloaming between day and darkness when the "pale stars blossom in the sky, and twilight's gloom has dimmed the bloom and blurred the butterfly". The nighthawk is partial to these twilight intervals. Then he careens about above city rooftops or low above his favored meadows, shouting his nasal hunting song as he snaps up unwary insects.

The world of the June darkness is a mysterious, awesome sort of place, with grotesque shadows and fearsome blundering insects whizzing by. Few indeed are they who know what wonders this world of the dark holds within itself. There are whole armies of living things which begin to awaken after sunset.

Starts Her Day

When the June twilight fades the little red bat starts her "day". Her sleep is finished under the leaves of an obliging tree where she hung head downward, hidden from the sun, her wings folded till she looked like an old cocoon or a cluster of dead leaves. Now her eager ears bring her the whine of midges. She can see the wavering passage of moths and hear the bumbling flight of tasty June beetles.

Later this month the common evening primrose will bloom in the dusty roadside edgings and in enchanted fencerows and weedy oldfields. Like the night reveller it is, the evening primrose has a jaded, bedraggled appearance by day. But at sunset a bud begins to expand its delicate golden petals slowly and soon its fragrance becomes increasingly powerful. Soon come the hawk moths like meteors through the air to hover for an instant over each blossom, probing for the nectar hidden in tubes so deep and slender that none but the moths' long tongues can drain the last drop.

The street light on the corner is often a revealing factor to many of the wonders of the night life about us. The big water bug cannot resist the lure of this glowing siren and so introduces himself to many who never suspected his presence in the neighborhood. The gorgeous luna moth or the golden imperial moth may flutter in from woodland haunts to join the whirling parade about the dazzling light. Even the dobson fly, fearsome looking parent of the hellgrammites of rocky stream beds, often leaves his wide valleys to follow the gleam.

Begins To Appear

As the month wears on toward July the big poisonous mushroom known as the Jack-o-lantern begins to appear about old stumps or decaying wood. This fellow has a special chore to perform during the witching hours of night, for it is phosphorescent and glows eerily against the ground. By day it is a disagreeable looking saffron colored mushroom, forming large patches wherever it sets up housekeeping.

Another glowing specter of the warm June nights is the elusive will-o-the-wisp, which I have never seen, and whose actual occasional appearance I sometimes doubt. This is said to float above marshy, boggy acres, wafted about by each errant breeze. It is supposedly a "ball" of marsh gas, with luminous tendencies, and should certainly provide a major chill to the countryman who encounters it at some lonesome midnight rendezvous. The fox fire, which is common enough, can also add some queer lighting effects to the damp June woodlands.

In more remote sections the big cat owl may still be heard as he hunts out his midnight snack of young rabbit, or perhaps even strong-flavored skunk. There will be a deep-toned, lonesome cry, echoing through the trees like the distant baying of a dog. Then suddenly the owl will swoop to the kill and his blood curdling scream of success shudders up and down the air ways of the night.

The countryman finds endless fascination in the realm of the June darkness. He slowly learns the language of another world in the starry shade of dim and solitary loveliness. Patiently he tracks down each new sound in the night. An early evening stroll along the country roadsides becomes an adventure in enchantment. And the greening countryside is rapidly becoming a double feature attraction.

BABIES AND CLOCKS

Adam and Eve did not have a clock but they had some babies.

The babies got hungry and Eve fed them without knowing what time it was.

Babies are not much interested in clocks but they know when they are hungry. Clocks and schedlues are sort of a compromise anyhow.

Perhaps it is a good idea to be pretty lenient with baby's feeding schedule. A few minutes either way will not make too much difference and baby will be more comfortable.

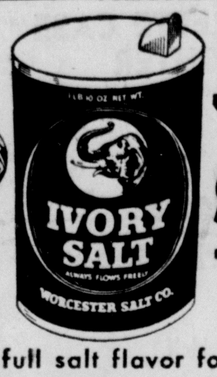

Baby's world is just about the size of his stomach.

Rural Group Is Host To Rotary

Byers Farm Visited; Dairy Talks Heard

New Castle Rotary club members were given a further insight into the complications of modern farming, when they were guests of their rural friends, Wednesday evening, at a dual program.

Late in the afternoon, they gathered at the modern dairy farm of Floyd Byers, in North Beaver township, where they saw grass silage being put up in one of the three silos on the farm, and also saw the vast amount of equipment needed now to keep apace with modern farming operations. Next they saw the Byers herd of 40 fine Jerseys being milked, saw the modern gutter cleaner in operation, and other operations. Most of the visitors agreed that there have been many changes made since the days of their youth on the farm.

Dairy Program

All then repaired to the Westfield Presbyterian church, where a fine dinner was enjoyed, followed by a program relating to the dairy industry.

Guy Fullerton presided as master of ceremonies, and introduced the Bel-Aires, a group of young women singers, under the direction of Mrs. W. Gray Foster, accompanied by Mrs. Nell Todd, who rendered several fine musical selections during the evening.

Several prominent Lawrence county dairymen then spoke on dairy problems, this type of program having been decided upon because of the fact that June is National Dairy month.

H. L. McCurley, of North Beaver township, told of the importance and size of the dairy industry in Lawrence county. Dale Currie, of Shenango township, spoke of the value of milk as a beverage, both from the point of satisfaction and health, as well as cost. Miss Patricia Kelley, Home Economics Extension Worker, spoke on the importance of milk as a food, stating that it is the best source of calcium, which many are lacking in their diet. Wayne W. Walker, of Little Beaver township spoke on the standards which must be maintained for quality milk. N. E. Sampson, of Wilmington township, spoke on the effect of recent milk price changes as they affect the dairy farmer.

The evening proved a most enjoyable one, and was most enlightening to the guests. Around 120 were present.

Two Departments Affiliate With County Firemen

Two new fire departments joined the ranks of the Lawrence County Firemen's Association and were accepted into membership at the meeting of the association held in Bessemer Wedensday evening. They are Pulaski township and Mahoning township.

Neither of the two new departments possess fire trucks or equipment at the present time, but are building up an organization.

It was announced that the meeting of the fire chiefs of the county will take place on Monday evening, June 19, with a dinner in the Bessemer Presbyterian church at 6:30 o'clock. Reservations must be made for this event, to which the assistant chiefs and secretaries are invited.

It was also announced that the annual family basket picnic will take place on Wednesday evening, July 12, at New Wilmington.

Andrew M. Dodds introduced Sgt. Raymond A. Blythe of the Butler patrol, Pennsylvania State Police, who spoke on the duties of fire police. Both the fire police and state police have the same objective, he stated, the protection of the public. An open discussion period followed his talk.

Plans for the fire school, which are under the supervision of Mike Schmidt, of Union township, are also progressing, it was reported during the evening.

The highest chimney in the world is under construction in El Paso, Tex. It will be 607½ feet feet tall.

B. & O. Vets And Auxiliary Dinner

A Flag Day motif was carried out in the appointments for the "pot luck" dinner held Wednesday evening by the B. & O. Veterans and Martha Horchler auxiliary in the Ecclesian hall, South Jefferson street.

Mrs. H. L. Fry headed the committee for the serving of the delicious meal. Aides on her committee were Mrs. A. L. Matthews, Mrs. Paul Bender and Mrs. Charles Gee.

After the dinner, each organization held a business meeting. Games and cards were later enjoyed, with prizes going to Mrs. George Nolte, Mrs. John Casasanta, Mrs. Roy Erwin and Mrs. Victor Beahm.

Plans were made for a family picnic to be held on August 9 at Cascade Park.

Declare Revolt In Peru Suppressed

(BULLETIN)

LIMA, Peru, June 15.—(INS)—The military government ruling Peru declared today that an uprising in Arequipa, the nation's second largest city, has been suppressed.

The government termed accounts of the revolt, in which insurrectionists were said to have gained partial control of the city, as "exaggerated."

Unconfirmed reports of the rebellion said about 50 persons were killed and hundreds of wounded in an encounter between the rebels and government forces.

The persons who serve you are sold on the cleanliness idea to the tune of 275 million dollars a year. Army Worms Invade Bedford County In Great Hordes

BEDFORD, Pa., June 15.—(INS)—Hordes of army worms continued their invasion of Bedford and other southern Pennsylvania counties today, causing mild damage to crops in some areas.

The worms, termed sure-fire destructors of corn, barley and wheat, get their name from the army-like tactics. They can sweep an acre of grain in less than 24 hours, leveling anything that stands in their way.

One motorist traveling through Bedford county on Highway 56 last night said he ran across a large group of the caterpiller-like worms crossing the highway.

L. H. Mollenauer, Bedford county agent said this was the first time in about ten years that they have been seen in the area.

In West Virginia, another army of worms invaded three Greenbrier county farms five mlies from Lewisburg, stripping 28 acres of crops and meadow land, including eight acres of corn and five acres of barley.

OPERATIC EVANGELIST

TORONTO — (INS) — A former opera star has now become an Evangelistic singer. Miss Dorothea Jones has had a notable career in the musical world. She began her voice training at six years of age and was accepted by the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York at 16. During the war, she sang for the Royal Canadian Air Force. Then last February, Miss Jones attended a gospel service in Toronto. She says it was the turning point in her life. She gave up her work as an opera singer and is now devoting her talents to a career as an Evangelist.

Protection Against Imported Swiss Watches Is Asked

WASHINGTON, June 15—(INS)—U. S. watchmakers asked today for a higher trade barrier against imported Swiss watches.

A "serious shrinkage" in the domestic jeweled watch industry was blamed on inadequate protection against Swiss watchmakers labor rates, quoted at 60 per cent under U. S. levels.

Representatives for Elgin, Benrus and Hamilton watch companies, major clock firms and unions asked the commmittee on reciprocity information to recommend that the U. S. increase tariff walls to protect the industry.

President J. G. Shennon of Elgin National Watch company pointed to the recent collapse of the Waltham Watch company as an effect of Swiss competition on the domestic market.

Shennon also said the present condition of the industry represents a peril to national defense. He said Elgin and Hamilton are the only makers of precision timing instruments readily available to the U. S. armed forces.

Newlyweds Warned Not To Blow Horns In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, June 15—(INS)—Philadelphia police don't give a toot for June brides, or any others . . . and they don't want anyone else to either.

Beaming couple obtaining marriage licenses today in City Hall are being given printed notices reminding them of a city ordinance and the state motor vehicle code which prohibits horn tooting except to prevent accidents.

The reminder is to let them know that henceforth there is to be no more traditional horn blowing by bridal motorcades. The request tactfully states:

"The Philadelphia police take this opportunity to request that you and your wedding party abide by the rules while driving on the streets and highways, especially during your contemplated nuptials. Thank you and good luck."

Hollywood Station Dismisses Employe For Oath Refusal

HOLLYWOOD, June 15—(INS)—Officials of radio station KFI in Hollywood have taken their first step in enforcing a loyalty oath by discharging a woman employe for refusing to sign an affidavit stating she is not a Communist.

The woman is Mrs. Charlene Aumack, 28, secretary to Program Director Pat Kelly, and also network traffic manager.

Earl C. Anthony, owner of the station, NBC outlet in the Los Angeles area, announced last week that all of the station's 200 employes "from the top executive to the janitor" had been asked to sign the "non-Communist oath."

Claude Mills, acting station manager, in announcing Mrs. Aumack's dismissal, said the action was taken "regretfully, but we have no choice. Mr. Anthony feels we must clear our skirts of any suspicion."

Mrs. Aumack, in a statement replying to her notice of dismissal at the end of the week, declared she is "not convinced dictatorial methods are the sane way to combat undesirable ideologies."

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

When Hector McNeil, England's brilliant representative to the U. N., visited the Dutch Treat club, President Ray Vir Den introduced him with the following anecdote: A decrepit English lord come down with a a violent toothache and was bundled off to his dentist for relief. The dentist took a gloomy view of the situation. "This tooth will have to come out, m'Lord," he announced. "It's going to be painful. I'd better give you gas."

"In that case," said the lord, "I'll have some of that twilight sleep I've been hearing about." "You must be joking, m'Lord," hazarded the dentist. "Twilight sleep is used exclusively for labor pains." "Great Scott," complained the lord, "have they got that, too?" McNeil laughed at the joke, but added this postscript: "I thought twilight sleep was the prerogative of the Tory party for the past 20 yaers!"

"Dis is my creation," chortled Jimmy Durante on the radio the other evening. "A lady's dress dat's strapless, backless, sideless an' topless!" "What do you call it?" asked the M. C. Durante answered, "Good Morning, Judge."

New Castle Symphony orchestra's first "pop" concert of the year, originally planned for June 21, has been postponed to Thursday, June 29, due to circumstances beyond the control of the symphony association.

The program will begin at 8:30 at Taggart Stadium.

A special feature will be the "Nut Cracker Suite" by Peter Tschaikowsky. On this number the orchestra will accompany a group of young dancers, the Children's Dance Theatre, under the direction of Miss Frances Billyk.

Conductor Anthony Casbero has also arranged a program of popular and light classical favorites for the first pop concert.

THE SIX PONDS

A sequel to —ON THE FUN OF WALKING.

When one tells another about a new fishing place, the listener listens intently until the narrator comes to the point where the piscatorial merits of the place he is describing are exalted. There the listener tilts his head like the pup who has been listening for his master's voice lo all these years, while a quizzical or what is more likely, a frankly unbelieving expression bespreads his face.

As I related the story of the fabulous six ponds, my two boon fishing companions wore twin expressions. Well, I may as well have been telling them a double-barreled falsehood. Spurred by their utterly incredulous expressions, I gave them the works. After relating a completely fantastic story, I turned on my heel and proposed leaving them there with their mouths agape.

Bill was the first to recover. "Hey, hold on," he yelled, running around to face me. Burr followed him, his head shaking from side to side as he narrowly looked at me.

"You've told us some good ones," said Bill, "but, that's a corker.'

"Imagine, bass and bullheads and bluegills in—in—in puddles,' stuttered Burr, still dazed by my tall story.

I suppressed a giggle and told them that all they needed to do was to fish the ponds and find out the facts for themselves.

"That's all right by me," declared Bill.

"Yeah, and we'll go this evening," broke in Burr.

'Sorry, I can't make it this evening," I said coldly. "May be, by the end of the week—."

Burr interrupted, "Oh, that's all right, pal. Bill and I can find the spot."

"I'll say we can. I've passed it at least a hundred times," enthusiastically declared Bill.

And that's how matters stood when I left my what so many consider inseparable fishing companions.

Bill encountered me on the following day. I saw him approaching, but it was too late to avoid him.

"Hi-ya," I said cheerfully as I strode past him.

"Not so fast," said Bill as he spun around. "Let me tell you about our little fishing trip," he added.

"Oh, yes, of course," I managed as I slyly glanced at his face.

Bill's face was inscrutable as he looked me straight in the eye and intoned, "Bass, bullheads and bluegills."

I was about to remonstrate when he added, "It was swell. We got some of each," he grinned.

"You DID—I mean, you did?"

"Of course," Bill went on, "none of them were record breakers, but all were pretty nice fish."

This little story proves that it does no harm to stretch the truth except when it turns out to be the truth.

James A. Rees Jr. Commissioned As Pilot In U.S. Army

Lt. James A. Rees, Jr., of this city, now wears the bars and silver wings of an Air Force officer and pilot after thirteen months of intensive pilot training, it is announced by Lt. T. W. Reed, Jr., USAF, Aviation Cadet Procurement Officer for the Pittsburgh recruiting area.

Lieutenant Rees began his flying training in Texas last year. During a six-month period for basic pilot training, he flew a 650 horsepower airplane, the T-6 "Texan" for approximately 130 hours. This training included night flying, instrument flying, acrobatics, navigation and cross-country. In addition to the flying, he followed an intensive course of study in academic subjects related to aviation.

Lt. Rees was selected for fighter training in the F-51 "Mustang" at Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, when he completed basic pilot training. He flew this famous World War II fighter plane in simulated fighter formations before graduation there recently.

Rees is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rees, Sr., RD No. 7, Mahoningtown. He graduated from North Beaver Township high school in 1944. He spent a brief period in the Army Air Force both in the United States and overseas. While in the states he attended Aircraft Mechanic School at Amarillo, Texas and B-29 Engineering school. He spent his overseas service at Foggia, Italy.

Memoriam Books Given To Library

The custom of giving money to the Public Library to be spent for books to memorialize a deceased friend is growing.

The gifts have ranged from $2.50 to $25.00. Sometimes the donor asks that a particular book on a particular subject be purchased, but more often the choice is left to the library.

The procedure is that when the gift is received, the librarian writes to the family of the deceased informing them of the donor and the purpose and that they will be notified when the books are purchased, processed and ready for circulation. Each book is given a special bookplate which reads: New Castle Public Library; Given in memory of ..... by .....

Memorial gifts to the library last year amounted to $120.95 and so far this year the total is $59.67. This is a boon to the library which has been operating on a tax of one-half mill since 1922.

President, Vassar College
(Distributed By I. N. S.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 15.—Those of us concerned daily with educating and guiding young people cannot too strongly urge them to buy U. S. Savings bonds now.

Young people who learn to purchase savings bonds regularly are making the soundest possible investment in the future—their own and everybody's.

Improvements Are Now Being Made At Penn Theatre

Midway in plans for re-furbishing the Penn theatre, General Manager Louis Lutz announced today that shortly a new marquee will be installed. New display cases and front panels have been placed, and a new boxoffice has been ordered. Rubber mats to cover the entire vestibule floor, are on hand, new carpeting for the entire foyer area where none has previously been laid, and including new carpeting in the main aisles.

New projection lamps have arrived and will be installed as soon as the new power transverter arrives.

This will vastly improve the clarity and definition of the picture, particularly noticeable on technicolor releases. A new screen is in place.

Other improvements are scheduled to follow as rapidly as the above plans are completed, and refurbishing of the Victor theatre will start in the fall.

Cutting Weeds On City Property

Richard I. Davis, health director of the city, announced today that a city employe has commenced cutting down weeds on city property.

Owners of vacant, weedy lots, are also being notified to remove weeds, otherwise the city will do the work and charge the cost against the property.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, overexertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Denver Man, 73, Seeks Annulment

DENVER, June 15.—(INS)—A 73-year-old Denver man has instigated annulment proceedings against his 69-year-old wife of four months.

Bernard Brouwer requested the annulment on grounds his wife "has secret mental reservations."

His complaint in Denver district court charged that she "intends to use the marriage to obtain the benefits of the plaintiff's home and abode as security without regard to requirements implied in a marriage contract."

PELUSO-HARTMANN NUPTIAL CEREMONY

St. Joseph's church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday morning, when Miss Mary Peluso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Peluso, of 416 Elizabeth street, became the bride of Henry William Hartmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hartmann, of 1011 Winslow avenue.

Vows were exchanged at 10 a.m. with Rev. Fr. C. H. Becker officiating, using the single ring service. The altar was embanked with palms, ferns, larkspur and snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a white nylon marquisette gown with overskirt trimmed with lace, extending on either side and ending in a Cathedral train. The gown had a fitted bodice with high neckline, with an off-shoulder effect, shirred and trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion with a double row of lace fell from an imported Beigium lace bonnet trimmed with rhinestones and orange blossoms. She carries a cascading bouquet of white roses and streamers of stephanotis, and wore a gold cross, a gift from her father.

Miss Pauline Peluso as maid of honor wore a white silk marquisette gown with fitted bodice and lace peplum. She wore a lace Belgium bonnet with shoulder veil and carried a cascading bouquet of American beauty roses.

George Scarazzo served as best man. Ushers were: Paul Peluso and Raymond Peluso, Jr., brothers of the bride.

A wedding breakfast and dinner was served to a large number of guests at Hotel New Penn. The informal evening reception was held at King Humbert hall from 8 to 11 p.m., with a large group of friends and relatives attending.

Upon their return from a motor wedding trip, they will reside at 103 West Garfield avenue. Mrs. Hartmann, a graduate of New Castle high school and Business college, is a payroll clerk in the Johnson Bronze company.

Mr. Hartmann, graduated from New Castle high school and is a clerk in the Standard Steel Spring company.

Aides at the reception included the mesdames: Rose Rozzi, Edith Semione, Angeline Frasso, Mary Ross, Adeline Volpe, Charlotte Scungio, Miss Theresa Rozzi.

Others who assisted were: Vincenzo Ross, Patsy Ross, Fred Paolone, Marion Cumo and Orient DiCola.

During the day, the bride received a telegram of congratulation from her uncle Antonio Peluso, in Rome, Italy.

C.L.C. Class Meets

Members of the C.L.C. class of the First Congregational church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Lou Davies, Garfield avenue.

A short business meeting was conducted, followed by a period of games. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Jack Matthews, Mrs. Charles Rieder and Mrs. Betty Yachum.

CHRIST METHODIST SCENE OF WEDDING

Christ Methodist church, South Mill street, was the scene of an impressive and beautiful wedding June 10 when Miss Esther Hines, was united in marriage to Harry Kaneski, son of Mrs. Anna Kaneski, Lowellville, O. The ceremony was performed before the church altar embanked with ferns, peonies, roses and carnations.

Mrs. F. P. Sulmonetti, organist, provided appropriate selections for the occasion. Miss Ethna Sulmonetti, soloist, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly". Kenneth Hines, brother of the bride, sang "Because".

Using the double ring ceremony, Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti, united the couple, presenting them with a beautiful Bible from which he read a portion of the ceremony.

James Hines, father of the bride, gave her away during the ceremony.

The bride was attractively attired in a white nylon over satin gown trimmed with French imported lace, off the shoulder neckline with yoke of nylon edged with French lace. The long sleeves tapered at the wrist with points edged with lace. It had a basque waist line. The bouffant hoop skirt, caught up in front showed four tiers of ruffles of French lace, ended in a Cathedral train with white ruffles of lace. Her veil was of imported English tulle with applique of satin at each corner and was attached to a tiara of rhinestones and silver baguettes. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies, centered with an orchid. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Dolores Fruit, maid of honor, wore a light green frosted marquisette gown with flowers to match as a headdress. She carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds and wore a strand of pearls.

Bridesmaids for the occasion were Miss Anita Donofrio, Miss Sally Lou Pearl and Miss Beverly Pearl, gowned respectively in yellow, blue and pink frosted marquisette gowns with flowers to match as a headdress, and carried bouquets of pink roses and carnations. They all wore a strand of pearls.

Karl Kaneski of Lowellville, O., served his brother as best man. Ushers were William Anthonssen of Lowellville and Kenneth Hines.

Robert Passaretti, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Ellen Hines, sister of the bride, was the flower girl.

A congratulatory period followed in the church vestibule, after which a wedding dinner was served for the immediate families at the Slovak hall, where a wedding reception was held from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. The couple departed for a honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination and upon their return will reside with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hines on Martha street.

Mrs. Kaneski is a graduate of the Shenango high school and Mr. Kaneski a graduate of the Lowellville high school and served in the ground crew of the last war.

Mrs. Kaneski has been the guest of honor at a series of pre-nuptial showers held at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Pearl, and was the recipient of many useful and beautiful wedding gifts.

School Board Will End Agreement On East St. Property

By agreement of the New Castle school board members, the agreement with Mr. and Mrs. De Grimm Renfrew in the matter of the Renfrew property at the top of East street will end.

Two years ago the board thought it would condemn the property for school purposes. An agreement was made which provided the Renfrews would not sell or improve the property for two years if the board did not condemn the property.

Mr. Renfrew appeared before the board Wednesday night and said the agreement had terminated and offered to make a new agreement which would give the board first option upon the property.

In the discussion period later, several of the members said they thought it was not worth while to continue any agreement as the board could not take over the property this year or next and probably would not need it anyway.

Under the terms of the agreement which ended June 1, the Renfrews still would have to give 30 days notice of their intention to improve the property unless they gave notice of termination of the agreement.

This notice will probably be given and no agreement of any kind will be in force.

School Survey In City Is Indicated

Lauren Thayer, of the architect firm of Thayer Company, appeared before the school board Wednesday night at the board's invitation.

He told the board his company was prepared to make a survey of school facilities of the city, looking to possible new buildings, where they should be located, what type they should be and approximately what money would be needed.

Asked what the price of such a survey would cost the board he said he thought it would run between $2500 and $3000. This as against a price of $5000 submitted by the Englehardt Company of New York some time ago.

The board took the matter under consideration.

Award Contracts For School Lighting

Continuing the policy of lighting one room in each school in a modern manner, the New Castle School board awarded three contracts for electric wiring, Wednesday night. The contract for the Arthur McGill school goes to Chamberlain Electric Co., at a price of $2849, and for the West Side school at a price of $937.40. The Houston Electric company was awarded the contract for wiring the Croton school at a price of $1973.

The board adjourned its regular business session at 11:55 and then went into executive session. Another executive session will be held Wednesday night June 21.

The first thoroughbred horse in the United States was imported to Virginia in 1730.

Matters Before School Board

Many Minor Actions By City Board

Gus Slovonsky, a merchant of the city, appeared before the school board Wednesday night and said that no contracts had been awarded for basketball uniforms for senior high school, but that team members were now being measured.

He was told that the contracts had not been awarded and that if the players were being measured this was something about which they knew nothing. Dr. W. Fulton Jackson, chairman of the athletic committee, suggested that perhaps the players were being measured before they got away for the summer.

Edwin C. Porter, the contractor who has the work of replacing the senior high auditorium floor, told the board there was no sub-floor under the flooring which is being taken out. If the board wants a thorough job done he said it would be necessary to install a sub-floor.

Because this is an emergency it is probable the board will get permission from the State Department of Public Instruction to order the lumber and have the work done without the delay of advertising for three weeks. The estimated cost of the sub-floor is about $1400.

A revised report card for the elementary schools was adopted Wednesday night at the suggestion of Superintendent Frank L. Burton.

Equipment for the science department was ordered purchased Wednesday night. Science equipment totals $1417.76, mechanical drawing equipment $691.98, athletic equipment $2499.67 and team equipment $1870.13.

A bond of $75,000 for School Treasurer Howard M. Burr was approved.

A lamp contract for the school system will be let, on a basis of $600 worth of electric bulbs.

Several advertisements for bids for materials were authorized. They include the following: Coal for next term . One thousand gallons of paint for use on exteriors, interiors, wood and metal. Thirteen new uniforms for drum majors of the senior high school band.

From the way a lot of folks are acting these days, there must be an increase in the readers of Robin Hood stories.—Somerset, Pa., American.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Mrs. James Holden, 22, actress appearing on Broadway under name of Virginia McMahon, goes through weightlifting exercise backstage. Mrs. Holden, who once worried about her 30-inch bust, noted that her hubby, training in try for Olympic weightlighting team, developed in the wrong places. Hubby changed his exercises while she gave weightlifting a try. Her bust, after 6 months of the exercise, measures 36 inches.

K. Of C. Council Will Have Election

Election of officers for the Knights of Columbus Council, 512, has been scheduled for Wednesday evening, June 21, in the Ecclesian club rooms. These plans were announced at the Wednesday evening meeting, with Grand Knight James T. Carey presiding.

After the invocation, the regular routine business took place. A report was heard on the golden jubilee held recently. Officers were originally scheduled to be voted upon last evening, but due to the fire which gutted the K. of C. meeting place in the McCready building, it was necessary to discuss others matters.

A vote of thanks was given to Ray McAuley, president of the Ecclesian club, for offering the use of his club rooms for the K. of C. meeting. A detailed financial report of the fire loss will be announced at the next meeting. No full report can be given until the records salvaged from the fire are checked.

Benediction was given by the grand knight and a short social gathering followed.

Joe DiMaggio, cousin of the famous Joe, has failed to make the go grade in class D ball.

Shots Fail To Halt Suspect

While with Lieutenant George Rigby investigating a complaint that Pennsylvania Engineering company offices had been ransacked, prowl car operator Harry Reese saw a man run alongside the building, and when the man refused to stop when commanded to halt, Reese fired two shots into the air, which rather than stopping the man, caused him to add extra limberness to his legs. He escaped.

Night Watchman John Sheldone discovered the building had been entered by someone who used stones to break a window. The time fixed for the entry was prior to 3:30 a.m. With Janitor Miller, they investigated then summoned police.

FREE ARTISTS

LONDON—(INS)—Prime Minister Clement Attlee says he has no plans to extend Britain's broad program of socialization to artists. Attlee told a meeting of the Royal Academy of Art: "The pursuit of art must inevitably be an adventure, and I think it is probable that the young artist will still find getting a livelihood rather precarious."

Oil City Trims Senators 10-8; Vandergrift Opens Series Here Tonight

Tonight Is 'Ladies Night', Erie Sailors In Second Place

Those pesky Oil City Refiners have left town and good riddance.

A donation bases-full triple by Joe Sutton, the Oilers second-baseman in the eighth inning was the blow that broke the Senators' back last night the Refiners waltzing off with a 10 to 8 verdict. Mr. Sutton cleaned the sacks off faster than a 75-mile-an-hour gale.

Ladies' Night Tonight

Tonight is "Ladies' Night" at the ball park as the Vandergrift Pioneers move in for three-game series. The game gets under way at 8 o'clock. Manager Chuck Cronin has selected Bernard Rossman (3-2) as his starting pitcher.

The Erie Sailors took a twin-bill from Niagara Falls last night to creep up to within a game of the league leading Senators. Butler lost its third straight at Johnstown, dropping to third place, a game and a half off the pace, while Oil City making hay at New Castle is only three and a half games off the lead reposing in fourth place.

It's going to be a dog and cat fight for the first four places in the league from here in. The Senators need a little more batting power to stay up there.

Eikenberg-Dondero Sparkle

Defensively Eikenberg, Dondero and Mouton are filling the bill very nicely at the infield spots, along with rookie Johnny Vizzini at first base, but defense does not win ball games. Eikenberg at short made two sensational plays last night that would have done credit to a Lou Boudreau, while Dondero at second speared drives and handled grounds like a big leaguer, and both of their errors were excuseable. All told the three Senator infielders handled 19 chances, Eikenberg nine of them.

Zedalis Is Chased

Stan Zedalis, trying for his sixth win of the year last night, wound up with a 5-3 record, as he was lifted in the eighth inning and was charged with seven runs, three of them as the result of walks, before Fireman George Becka could relieve him. Becka almost extinguished the flames, fanning Beacham, the pitcher, and then Sutton with a three-two count belted his triple to right and the damage was done. Becka gave up one run on a wild pitch in the eighth inning also, Sutton scoring. The Oilers led 8 to 6 at the end of the eighth frame.

Dick Ackerman batted for Becka in the eighth and flied out. Herb Churchill pitched in the ninth and Oil City got two more insurance runs. With one out, Eikenberg, who had played a scintillating game at short, bobbled a grounder by Huddleston. Larry Rush singled and Huddleston took third, to score along with Rush a few seconds later as Lloyd Leary lined a double to right field.

Senators Outhit Oilers

The Senators trailed 10 to 6 going into the bottom of the ninth, and batted in two more runs as Bill "Slugger" Horne got his second hit of the game, a single to center, plating Mouton and Kiel. Rossman ran for Horne and died on first as the veteran Walt Beacham forced Eikenberg to ground out to Bernard at first.

The Senators outhit Oil City 13 to 9, with Johnny Vizzinni leading the parade with three hits, followed by Horne, Bilo, Kiel and Eikenberg with two each. Kiel had two doubles, but also fanned twice and drew one walk. Beacham fanned Kiel in the sixth with the bases full.

Gene Bilo continued to sparkle on the base paths, his two crowd-pleasing thefts of second base giving him 28 for the year. His running one-hand catch of a hard hit liner by Beacham in the ninth with the Oilers on fire was sensational.

Day by day the race in the City Baseball league is becoming hotter and hotter, and indications are that when five games are over this evening there'll be a change in the complexion of the standing.

At present, the teams that are making the race decidedly keen are St. Margaret, Universal and Lawrence Independents. They stand in the order named in the City baseball feud.

According to statistics available at The News, St. Margaret is one game ahead of Universal and the "Uni's" are one game in front of the Indies, while the Indies are two games back of the Saints.

Artillery Shows Life

The Artillery emerged victorious over West Pittsburg, 11-3, Sunday, but tied DeCarbo Bombers, Tuesday, 5-5. Croton beat the Indies, 12-11, Sunday and beat Fees, Tuesday, 5-4.

Although Croton is in ninth place and the Artillery last, indications are they'll play a game this evening which may be worth seeing. The teams apparently are nearly even in strength.

There'll be fur flying when the Ecclesian, fourth place club, tackles the Universal team at six o'clock. Nothing woul give greater pleasure to the "Eccs" than to stop the upward surge of the Universal.

Snow was in rare form for the Universal, Tuesday, and Pyle was not so drab for Franks. Snow held Franks to a trio of hits while Pyle was found for only half a dozen safe clouts.

Ecclesian Trail Indies

Latsko gave up nine hits to the Indies, Tuesday, while Shelar, who for a time was in the Mid-Atlantic allowed seven hits. The Universals will depend upon their hurlers staff to stop the "Eccs" and climb farther upward.

There should be a good game between the Fees and West Pittsburg, and if Davis is hot, West Pittsburg may be stymied. Recenty Davis hurled a no hit, no run game, which was the first for any City league moundsman.

On past performances, the Saints should win over DeCarbo who hold down seventh place in the league. Regardless how Universal fares, the Saints will continue to head the league, if they win.

However, if DeCarbo, by any quirk of baseball, should vanquish St. Margaret, they"ll drop behind the Universal, with 12 won, and four lost, while the Uni's will be accredited with 12 won and three lost.

Playing Good Ball

The Lawrence Indies, third place team, and Franks, are also due for action. Lacking the form of two years ago the Franks are half way down the ladder while Hoss Zidow and his aggregation are esconced in third place.

Every game played Tuesday was good. No team made more than six runs. One, five-five tie was played. No team got more than nine hits. One was held to one hit, and another team was confined to three hits.

If Tuesday's games can be accepted as a criterion as to future games in the City league, their attendance records will surge upward, because fans like good baseball, and it was good baseball Tuesday.

R. B. STONER AND PAUL CRABLE DISCUSS PHEASANTS

TWO PENS ARE READY to receive several hundred pheasant chicks from the state hatchery at Cambridge Springs, and when the "birds" arrive at the age of 12 weeks, they will be released in Lawrence county, according to Paul Crable, director of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association. The pens were built by members of the association, Crable having been in charge.

One pen 100 feet long, 42 feet wide and six feet high, was constructed on the farm of R. B. Stoner, New Castle, R.D. 6. The other pen, 100 feet long, 25 feet wide and six feet high, was built in the Charles McGarry farm, Gardner Stop. The pens are of mesh wire. The top is also enclosed by mesh wire. In each pen is a brooder house.

Twenty square feet has been alloted to each chick. The pen at Stoner's farm will accommodate 200 "birds" and the pen at McGarry's farm, 100 birds.

The State Game commission provides the chicks and as Mr. Stoner is operating under regulations of the State Farm Game project, he will be paid $1, for each bird when it is released.

The Lawrence County Sportsman's association will pay Mr. McGarry the same rate for each "bird" released at the age of 12 weeks.

It is anticipated that the first consignment of pheasant chicks will arrive at the pens June 20.

Next to prevarication, the most common idiosyncracy of fishermen is superstition . . . the secret potions and voodoos of the business!

Wrapped in many of the accepted notions, of course, is truth gleaned from years of experience, but in many others there is as much practicality as a plug hat in the jungle.

Theories about angling are exploded every year. None seem to be fishing proof. Last of the iconoclastic bombshells is being heavd by the Michigan Conservation Department Institute for Fisheries Research, according to John Murphy, Outdoor Writer for the I. N. S.

The institute just completed a study on Pigeon River, a typical trout stream. Detailed records were kept on 2,233 fishing trips by 1,226 anglers. And the results showed:

1. That the fisermen could do better flipping a coin than following so-called "fishing calendars." Catches were about the same on the calendar days marked "good," "poor," and bad."

2. Persons fishing when the barometer was falling caught as many fish as those fishing when the barometer was rising. Those who fished when the barometer was steady were more successful.

3. Type of bait preferred by trout fishermen was about equally divided between worms and flies . . . and the catches per hour were about the same!

4. The only difference in catches resulted in one thing . . . 'angling know how." The planting of trout merely made it easier for the adept fisherman. It did not enable more persons to share in the total catch.

Double For Your Money At JWV Wrestling Bouts

Now and then a customer gets a double header for his money.

Not too often, of course, but occasionally. And that's what the customers who attend the wrestling bouts at Taggart stadium June 20 will get, a double header.

The first will be a right smart evening of entertainment. The second, and much more important, is they will be helping some fellows for whom the war will never be over.

Sponsored By JWV

The bouts are sponsored by the Jewish War Veterans. Every dime profit from the bouts will go to purchasing television sets for wards in the Deshon General hospital near Butler.

For those who have never visited the Deshon hospital perhaps this doesn't seem so important. But to some of those men who are bedfast, have been and will be for a long time, a television set is a little peep at the outside world they have been denied for a long time.

The JWV has been doing this sort of work for a long time. Not so long ago they installed a television set in the geriatric ward. Now a geriatric ward is not just another ward where patients are treated and cured. It is a ward for the forgotten, a ward for men for whom nothing more can be done in a physcial way.

Need More Sets

The television set was turned or at 8 o'clock and the attraction was Milton Berle. Just to have seen the eagerness and pleasure in the eyes of those veterans was worth the price of the set.

And that's what the wrestling bouts are for. To provide more television sets for men in Deshon hospital. Men who remember the cheering and band music and backslapping when they went away. They also remember the filth and blood and carnage of the battle field. That's why they are in Deshon.

You can help them in their hours of loneliness and despair. All it takes is the price of a ticket to the wrestling bouts June 20. Hope we'll be seeing you there.

Good Pitching Aids Cardinals In Flag Chase

Yanks, Red Sox, Tigers Trimmed

By HOWARD SIGMAND
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 15.—Sagacious pre-season baseball experts peeked from behind their eight ball today and winced. There were the old pro St. Louis Cardinals thumbing their noses at them.

The Cardinals of course were three and a half games to the good in the National League. And where were the Brooklyn Dodgers, the choice of the wise men.

Good Pitching

Wherein lies the cause, asked the experts. And as experts they answered, pitching.

Pollett has five straight. Last night Lanier made it four straight wins by turning back the Philadelphia Phillies, 4 to 2 on a six-hitter.

As it turned out, this was the only action in the league yesterday. Brooklyn-Chicago, New York-Pittsburgh and Boston-Cincinnati were all rained out.

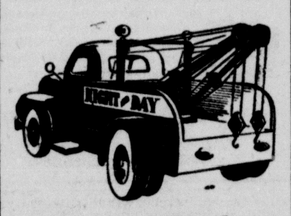

It rained in the American League too, but it was a different rain.

Leaders Beaten

First off, the pace-setting Tigers were trounced 8 to 2 by the Philadelphia Athletics. The Yankees took their second straight nine inning defeat from the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 2. The Red Sox, dropped their fifth straight, 7 to 3 to the Cleveland Indians in a night game.

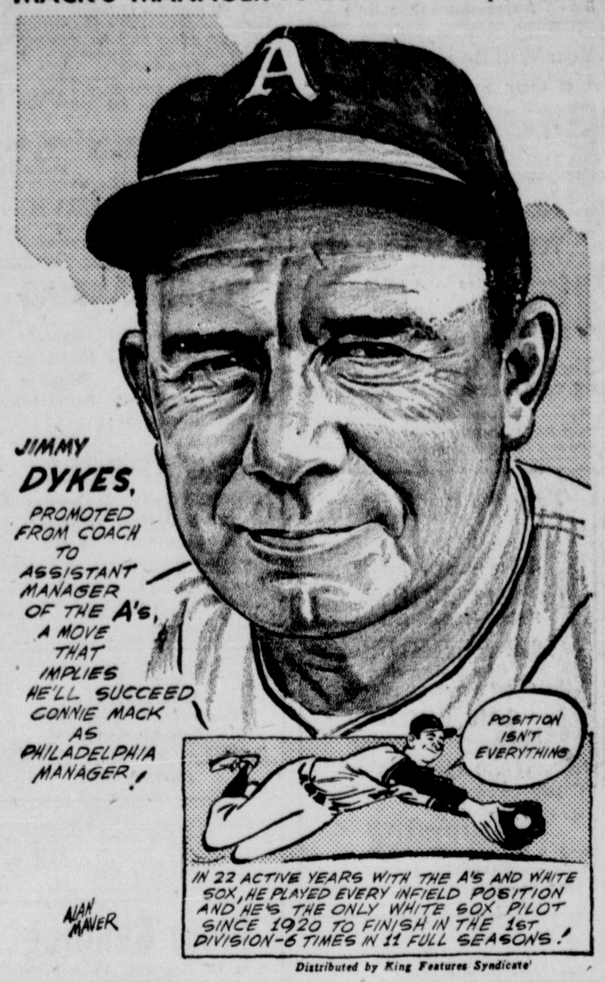

Chico Marrero limited the St. Louis Browns to four hits as the Washington Senators won out, 4 to 1.

Flip-flops will be no trick for Penn State's newly-elected cheerleader, tumbler Rudy Valentino of Lancaster, Pa.

MACK'S MANAGER-TO-BE? - - By Maver

Bessemer Books Top-Notch Nines

Bessemer ball field will probably soon be known as the beehive by the amount of activity being planned by the Cementers of the Lawrence County League.

That team is now booking Tuesday and Thursday dates for baseball games on a home and home basis. Beginning next week the Bessemer nine plans to play under the lights.

Games can be arranged by writing Leonard Wolfe, Box 324, Bessemer, or calling New Castle 8043-R-2.

Friday evening Bessemer will play Pete Brown's Sport Shop of the Double A League in Youngstown. The AA circuit is one of the fastest sandlot leagues in Ohio and the Sport Shop is a good representative of the loop. How Bessemer fares against the top-flight foe will offer an interesting comparison for local sandlot fans.

Next Tuesday evening donkey baseball will appear in the cement city. The educated donkeys are always a treat for the fans.

Donkey Baseball

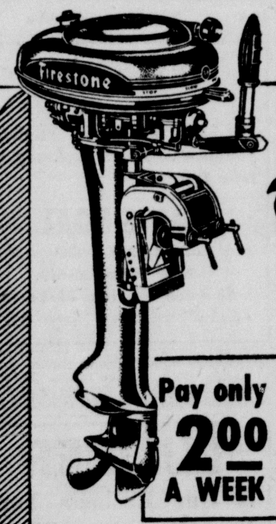

The Bessemer regulars will play the Yannigans under the portable lighting system carried by the donkey-ball promotors.

St. Margaret's of the City League have been booked for a night game in Bessemer Monday evening, July 3.

Work on the lighting system in Bessemer is progressing very rapidly and the formal opening of the ball field with a top-notch game and appropriate ceremonies will be held next week.

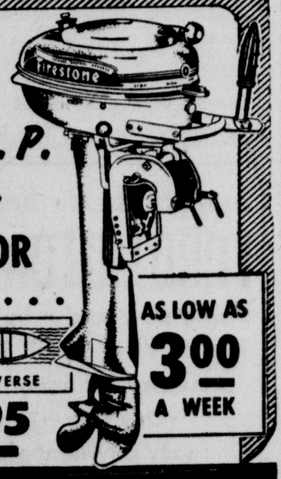

Bill Jeffrey, soccer coach, and Charlie Spiedel, wrestling mentor, are the only coaches remaining from the Penn State staff of 20 years ago. Both have fielded 24 teams.

New Castle Legion Trips Ellwood, 4-3

New Castle Legion defeated Ellwood 4 to 3 on the New Castle diamond Wednesday. It was the fourth straight win for the locals in league competition.

It took a costly error in the last of the seventh to edge the tough Ellwood nine.

Trailing 3 to 1 in that inning, Gray led off with a walk. Marinelli fanned. Ford singled and Bender's single plated a run. DeLeone walked to fill the bases. Costello hit a double play ball to short which was dropped and kicked by the pivotman. Ford and Bender scored and the game was over.

It was a close game and well played until that time.

Joe Marinelli struck out 12 and walked none as he pitched the locals to victory. He gave up only four hits.

Bender was the best in the hitting department with three of New Castle's six safeties.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Ellwood .....000 100 2—3 4 2
New Castle ..001 000 3—4 6 3

Batteries—Ellwood, Brown and Hall; New Castle, Marinelli and Andrews.

Look for Harvey Haddix, southpaw pitcher for Columbus in the American Association, to be a Cardinal standout in the not too distant future.

Bob Higgins, former Penn State coach, rates fullback Fran Rogel one of the greatest football players he ever coached.

Moose Defeat All-Stars, 15-7

Moose club defeated the City Softball League All-Stars 15-7 on Wednesday evening at Dean park.

Roger Maggie went the distance for the Moose. Richards started for the All-Stars but gave way to Demos in the sixth. Richards was the loser.

Nuzzo paced the Moose attack with a home run in the first inning with two aboard. Sines led the All-Stars with a home run with the bases loaded in the third.

The win was the Moose's second in two years over the league All-Stars.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
All-Stars ..006 010 000— 7 6 8
Moose ....300 241 41*—15 16 4

All-Stars—Richards, Demos (6) and Hawkins; Mooose, Maggie and DeJoseph.

BOMBERS TO PLAY

The DeCarbo Bombers will meet the Ellwood City CIO tonight at Dean park at 6:15. The Bombers will play the Sons of Italy at Youngstown Friday night. Suzow is slated to take the mound tonight against Ellwood. Spanish will probably go in Youngstown Friday.

MOOSE CHANGE NAME

The Moose club softball team of the City Softball league will be known as Stegmaiers for the remainder of the season, it is announced by Vincent Gallagher, business manager of the team.

There will be no changes in personnel, it is annonuced. The change is in sponsorers. Local LOOM lodge No. 51 has curtailed its sports program, necessitating the change.

The team will play its first game under its new name tonight when it meets Westinghouse at Sharon.

EAGLES TO PRACTICE

Eagles 455 team will hold a practice at Dean park tonight at 6 o'clock, it is announced by Manager Andy Russo. Any player that wishes to try out for the team is asked to report, as well as the regular players. Players that did not get fitted for uniforms are asked to be present.

SCOTTS VS. HANKS

Hanks and Scotts will play a postponed City Softball league game tonight at 6 o'clock at Lehigh field, it is announced by manager Pete Nigro of the Hanks.

Reports from Kansas City say that Johnny Mize's shoulder is responding to treatments and that he'll be back with the Yankees.

GALS WRONG

NEW YORK—(INS)—The chairman of the National Woman's party believes that most women are completely ignorant of the beating they're taking in this man's world. Seventy-four-year-old Dr. Agnes Wells, who heads the Woman's party, says that most women believe they have the world in their grasp, but they're just fooling themselves. Dr. Wells claims that the only good jobs women have are those no man wants. Also, any woman who has the ability and wants a job in a so-called "man's field" has to battle all the way.

Says New York, Chicago Are Counterfeiting Centers

By GLENN M. GREEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 15—(INS)—Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman has told Congress that New York and Chicago are centers of a post-war counterfeiting ring.

He said that bogus money produced by the rings is being seized at a rate of more than $100,000 a month.

Baughman testified in appropriations hearings now public that the New York and Chicago group have "criminal connections" which serve as "distributors."

His testimony was developed apart from the Senate crime inquiry now checking on nation-wide gambling. The senators investigating this phase of the crime problem have been promised evidence that an interstate gambling syndicate using Western Union leased wires tried to corrupt local Western Union managers.

Asks More Agents

Baughman asked the appropriations committee for 31 additional agents to help handle the counterfeiting problem.

He said there are only two areas—Denver and Seattle—that "did not have any counterfeit money in circulation until within the last couple of months."

But he explained that several "passers" recently went through and the Denver and Seattle areas were "flooded" with counterfeit money. Baughman testified:

"At the present time we are seizing counterfeit money at the rate of more than $100,000 every month, and there is more counterfeit money in the United States than at any time during the past ten years."

He said that former "black marketeers" who were prosecuted for producing counterfeit OPA stamps are now "responsible for a lot of these counterfeit notes." He said this was especially true in Chicago.

Baughman said that St. Louis and some other centers also are producing the phony bills but New York and Chicago are the main centers.

During the first five months of fiscal 1950, Baughman said, the Secret Service seized more than $550,000 in bad money, of which $383,737 was in circulation and "represented losses to the public."

The previous year more than one million dollars worth was seized, of which $350,000 was in circulation.

EXPENSES CUT

Chicago (SF)—Class I railroads will spend nearly $870 million for new cars and locomotives and for other purposes in 1950, a reduction of almost 31 per cent compared wtih 1949.

Mr. William Berkstresser
New Castle Dry Goods
New Castle, Penna.

Dear Mr. Berkstresser:

I shall be delighted to act as a judge for your Teen Modeling Contest.

I think you are doing a grand job in New Castle by making teen-agers aware of the importance of good grooming and posture, and that "well-scrubbed American look" which has always been our beauty standard at the Conover Agency.

I shall be looking forward to receiving from you the photographs of your teens, whom you select to model for your newspaper ads, and for your TEEN QUEEN contest.

As you requested, I shall, at that time, pick the outstanding model of models.

I wish you every success on this new project.

Sincerely,
Harry Conover
